Introduction

Welcome to this edition of the independent Leeds Care Services Directory, which contains information for adults looking for care or support within the county, whether they are paying for it themselves or receiving support from the council.

Staying as independent as possible is important to everybody. This Directory contains information about the care and support services available to enable you to do this when remaining at home, moving into a housing with care scheme, or within a care home or care home with nursing.

If you feel you need support to remain independent, first look to your community. There’s a host of organisations and voluntary services that could help you.

If you think you need more formal care and support, arrange an assessment with your local Adult Social Care department to establish your specific needs. This is free, irrespective of your income and available to all. More details are provided on page 14. The assessment will determine whether you are eligible for financial support via a Personal Budget, which may allow you to buy in your own support and take control of your situation.

Alternatively, your circumstances may mean you are classed as a ‘self-funder’, with the means to pay for your care. This is discussed on page 21 for those paying for care at home and 44 for those paying for residential care.

Support or care to remain living in your own home may be the option that best suits your circumstances. Ideas to make life easier at home start on page 8 and a list of local home care providers begins on page 24.

If you are unable to remain at home, you may want to consider a housing with care scheme (see page 30) or residential care. Comprehensive lists of care homes and care homes with nursing in Leeds start on page 51.

There’s also important information about care decisions, including finding care in another county, making a comment or complaint about a service and how solicitors can help you.

Finding care options in your area

This Directory offers a telephone and website service allowing you to search by postcode or region for care homes, care homes with nursing and home care providers that meet your requirements across the country. Your search can be sent to you by post or email, or discussed with you over the telephone. If you are searching online, the results can be saved and emailed to others. You can also view an electronic version of this Directory on the site and have it read to you by using the ‘Browsealoud’ function.

Whatever your care needs, this Directory and the Care Choices telephone and website service will be able to point you in the best direction, however you would like care information presented.

Helping you to stay independent

Services developed in partnership with the voluntary sector

Adult Social Care works with voluntary and community organisations to supply preventative care services. These are a vital form of support and help to maintain independence and social inclusion, and delay or avoid the need for more statutory interventions.

Examples include:

- day services, lunch clubs and social groups;
- befriending, visiting and telephone contact services;
- support schemes to help people being discharged from hospital;
- support for carers; and
- handyperson schemes.

Day care centres

Many people can feel lonely or isolated without an opportunity to fill their days with meaningful activities. Research has shown that one way to alleviate loneliness and promote wellbeing and independence is to provide regular social contact and a focus for activities.

Day care centres give people the chance to change their routine, meet new people, take up an activity or receive specialist services such as chiropody or hairdressing. There is a wide variety around the county, catering for older people, people with mental health conditions, learning disabilities and dementia.

Centres can be as important for carers as those attending as they allow for a regular break from caring.

Meals on wheels

Some services are able to deliver frozen or freshly cooked meals to your home. Frozen meals can be delivered in bulk and kept in your freezer until required, while hot meals should be eaten immediately. In Leeds, Meals on Wheels delivers this service as part of Leeds City Council.

For more information, visit www.leeds.gov.uk and search ‘meals on wheels’. You can also email communitymealsleeds@leeds.gov.uk or call 0113 378 3750.

Alternatively, you could arrange to have meals delivered privately. You may find a service by word of mouth or using the internet – your local library may be able to help here.

Adapting your home

To remain in your own home for as long as you would like, you should ensure that it is safe, secure and warm. Some forward planning to ensure that the garden doesn’t become a burden is also sensible. If you are not planning to move, think about adaptations that would make life easier now and later on.

Home Improvement Agencies (HIAs)

HIAs are local organisations funded and supported by local and central government. They work professionally and sensitively with older and disabled homeowners, providing advice, support and assistance to help them repair, improve, maintain or adapt their homes to meet their changing needs.

Most HIAs provide three main services, including: information and advice on repairs or adaptations you may be considering – this usually entails a visit to your home and is often free; a handyperson service for small jobs and repairs – typically, the HIA will employ its own handypersons and charge you an hourly rate for their services; and a home adaptations service for more major works.

The HIA will work with you to specify the adaptations needed, and they will normally offer to get estimates from one or more of their regular contractors. Subject to your acceptance, the HIA will then offer to manage the works contract for you for an agreed fee.

HIAs may also be helpful if you are not sure whether you can afford the home repairs or adaptations you need. They can advise on your eligibility for any grants and, if necessary, put you in touch with an independent financial adviser.

For further information about, and contact details for, local HIAs, visit www.housingcare.org or contact Leeds City Council.

Telecare

Telecare is equipment that can detect falls, inactivity, smoke, flooding, gas or extreme temperatures in the home. Sensors, when activated, will connect to a response centre where trained operators will contact the individual through their home unit. They will take the most appropriate action, such as contacting a nominated responder, family member, carer, neighbour, doctor or the emergency services.

Telecare can allow users to regain confidence in their homes and remain independent. Relatives and carers are also reassured, safe in the knowledge that should an incident occur, they will know about it. Some devices can also help monitor particular health conditions and reduce the need for hospital admission.

You can buy telecare and assistive technology from private companies and organisations or, if you’re eligible through an assessment (see below), Leeds City Council may be able to provide it for you. For further information, please visit www.leeds.gov.uk and search ‘equipment for the home’.

Support from the council

The way councils provide services to eligible adults and their carers is called personalisation. This term is used to describe a number of ways in which eligible adults can receive a mixture of local authority and government money to pay for the care services they need without direct council involvement.

If you approach the council for social care support, your needs and finances will be assessed. If you have a carer, they can be involved and have their needs assessed too.

Your assessment

If you appear to have care or support needs, you have the legal right to an assessment of your care needs and finances. Councils are statutorily obliged to provide this to you, regardless of whether you access their services. The assessment (which is free) will consider:

- how you can best be supported to live as independently as possible;
- your home and how you are coping in it;
- your emotional wellbeing;
- your diet; and
- any health and medical treatments you need.

You will need to contact Adult Social Care, which is responsible for this process. Call 0113 222 4401.

Once Adult Social Care has an understanding of your care and financial needs, the next stage is to determine what services you may be eligible for and who will pay for them. The council will give you more information on eligibility and the national eligibility criteria it uses at the time of your assessment.

Information on paying for care can be found on page 21 if you are receiving home care and page 44 if you are moving into a care home.

Personal Budgets

If you are eligible for support from the council, you may be given a Personal Budget.
A Personal Budget is the amount of money that the council calculates it will cost to meet the support needs of eligible people. If you are eligible for a Personal Budget, the actual amount you receive will depend on your eligible needs and your finances. The money should be spent in line with a support plan that has been agreed by both you and the council and can be either a full or a partial contribution to such costs. You may also choose to pay for additional support on top of the budget. Any eventual contractual agreement for services is between you and your care provider, not the council.

If you are eligible, a Personal Budget may be taken:

- in the form of a Direct (cash) Payment, held directly by you or, where you lack capacity, by a ‘suitable person’;
- by way of an account held and managed by the council in line with your wishes; or
- as a mixture of the above.

Personal Budgets cannot currently be used to pay for residential care.

Assessments from hospital

If you have been admitted to hospital and you might need care on discharge, you may be referred to the discharge team for an assessment, which will take place on the ward. The team may be made up of social workers, carers’ officers, mental health workers and housing officers.

Whatever services you need on discharge, Adult Social Care will work with you, your family and carers to either restart services already in place prior to admission or to provide the appropriate services if you are eligible.

Sometimes interim care packages are set up to facilitate your discharge and you will be reassessed by a community social worker within four to six weeks.

Reablement

Reablement is an intensive short-term service that helps people regain skills and confidence, for example, after a fall or hospital stay. You may need to have an assessment of your care needs to decide whether you are eligible. If you are eligible, a reablement worker will support you for a limited period, usually up to six weeks.

Reablement helps people to learn or re-learn daily living skills. It is not about doing things for you, it’s about giving you the skills and confidence to do things for yourself. It can also mean that you do not start to depend on support that could cost you money. For example, a reablement worker could help you regain your confidence following a fall, or provide support that enables you to prepare a meal if there has been a change in circumstances that means you need to cook. They may also identify pieces of equipment that could support you to regain or maintain your independence for as long as you can.

Speak to your GP, hospital staff or care manager if you think you might benefit from reablement. They can put you in touch with the right services if they feel that reablement will help you.

Intermediate care

This aims to give recovery and rehabilitation support to help people regain their independence when they come out of hospital or, just as importantly, prevent them going unnecessarily into hospital.

Intermediate care can be provided in your... own home or in a care home, depending on local policy and your specific needs. It can be provided by care staff, occupational therapy and physiotherapy, with additional support provided by the local GP surgery, social workers and community nurses. This combined resource helps people to regain their independence and feel confident in their ability to manage for themselves with any necessary additional support.

Intermediate care, including any care home fees where relevant, is provided by the NHS and is free. It is usually limited to a maximum of six weeks. If, after this, you have ongoing care or support needs, the council will conduct an assessment and may help you to arrange any services you might need. There may be a charge for these services.

NHS Continuing Healthcare

NHS Continuing Healthcare is a package of continuing care that is arranged and funded solely by the NHS. This is free of charge, wherever it is delivered. NHS Continuing Healthcare support may be provided in a care home or care home with nursing or in a person’s own home.

People eligible for NHS Continuing Healthcare will have been assessed to have a ‘primary health need’ and are likely to have complex medical needs and substantial or intense ongoing care needs. See page 45 for more information.

Personal health budgets

A personal health budget is an amount of money to support a person’s identified health needs. It is planned and agreed between the person and their local NHS team.

The aim is to enable people with long-term conditions and disabilities to have greater choice, flexibility and control over the healthcare and support they receive.

Who is a carer?

Carers regularly look after, help or support someone who wouldn’t be able to manage everyday life without their help. A carer doesn’t have to be living with the person they care for, and the help they give doesn’t have to be physical. The carer may be caring for a partner, another relative, a friend or a neighbour. For example, it may be someone who:

- is over 60;
- is living with dementia;
- has a physical or learning disability or a mental health condition;
- has sight, hearing or communication difficulties;
- has a long-term health condition; or
- misuses drugs or alcohol.

The carer may be helping with:

- personal care, such as washing and dressing;
- going to the toilet or dealing with incontinence;
- eating or taking medicines;
- getting about at home or outside;

For assistance with finding care and support, call Care Choices on 0800 389 2077
• practical help at home and keeping someone company; or
• emotional support or communicating.

Anyone who is caring for someone in Leeds can contact Leeds Carers for information and advice. There’s a host of guidance on the website, or carers can call, email or drop in for support with their specific needs.

Having a carers’ assessment

Anyone who provides, or intends to provide, regular unpaid support to someone who could not manage without their support has the right to have their own needs assessed, even if the person they care for has refused support services or an assessment of their own needs.

A carers’ assessment is an opportunity for people to tell the council what they need as a carer, and to find out what support might be available. The assessment is an essential first step for carers to get the support they may need. It looks at:

• the care the carer provides and how this affects their life;
• any support they are getting now and what else would help; and
• what they would like their support to achieve.

The assessment can also give lots of information about other services that might help, and other ideas for support. The carer’s assessment will show if the carer qualifies for support from Adult Social Care.

Carers’ Personal Budgets

The carers’ Personal Budget is a single payment that can be used towards the cost of something specific that will support carers in their caring role. For example, it could be used for leisure activities, education or training, or just to take a short break from caring.

When Adult Social Care considers a carer’s Personal Budget, it gives priority to situations where there is a significant risk of the carer not being able to continue to provide care if they do not get some support. The amount a carer could get depends on their needs identified by their carers’ assessment. The money is not taxed and it will not affect any benefits.

Respite at home

Home-based respite services give carers a break from their caring responsibilities. A care worker can come in to look after the person they care for, so the carer can have some time to themselves. The breaks could be regular or just when needed.

Respite at home is considered to be a service for the person who is being cared for. If they have a Personal Budget (see page 14) for their own needs they could use that money to pay for it. A financial assessment of the person being cared for will confirm whether they need to pay towards the cost of this service.

Benefits

Carers may want to explore whether they are entitled to Carer’s Allowance – currently £62.70 per week but this may change over the life of this Directory.

Carers may also qualify for Carer’s Premium or Carer’s Credit depending on their eligibility. The Government’s website, www.gov.uk has more information on benefits, including carers’ benefits. Alternatively, contact a local carers’ organisation which may be able to help undertake a benefit check.

You can find out more about what organisations support carers in Leeds by exploring http://leedsdirectory.org

Resource for those supporting disabled children

My Family, Our Needs is an online resource providing impartial information for parents, carers and practitioners supporting children from birth to 25 years with additional needs. As well as guidance, policy and signposting, there is a lifestyle section for parents covering topics such as health and wellbeing, work, family and relationships. Visit www.myfamilyourneeds.co.uk

Care in your own home

Carefully chosen home care with a good quality provider is an excellent way to retain your freedom and independence, whilst getting the help you need to stay happy and safe. It can offer the opportunity to stay at home, in your own familiar surroundings, and to retain a quality of life you might have feared lost.

Why choose home care?

Reasons for choosing home care can vary. Sometimes, after a stay in hospital, someone might find they need some help whilst they recupeate. Others can find that a long-term condition or disability means they can no longer cope and they need a bit of help.

After a stay in hospital someone may carry out an assessment of your situation to see if home care will benefit you. You and your family will be fully involved in looking at what will suit you best if you’d like them to be.

Alternatively, you or those close to you might notice changes in your ability to manage the day-to-day things you normally cope with easily, like preparing meals or looking after yourself. If this happens, contacting Adult Social Care is a good first step towards finding help.

How home care can help you

The level of home care provided can be tailored to meet your needs – from a visit once a day to a much greater amount of support.

Even those with quite significant and debilitating medical conditions can get skilled personal care that can enable them to stay in their own homes. Some agencies will provide live-in care, where a care worker will stay with you at home to support you throughout the day and night.

A list of all home care agencies operating in Leeds starts on page 24.

Finding the right support

This Directory offers a telephone and website service allowing you to search by postcode or region for care homes, care homes with nursing and home care providers that meet your requirements across the country. Your search can be sent to you by post or email, or discussed with you over the telephone.

If you are searching online, the results can be saved and emailed to others. You can also view an electronic version of this Directory on the site and have it read to you by using the ‘Browsealoud’ function.

The Care Quality Commission (www.cqc.org.uk) is responsible for checking that any care provided meets essential standards of quality and safety. Further information is on page 48.

The United Kingdom Homecare Association (UKHCA) requires its members to comply with a code of practice. This code includes a commitment to treat customers with dignity and respect and operate at a level above the legal minimum required in legislation.

Social care regulations do not apply to cleaners, handymen or gardeners. However, some home care agencies are increasingly providing staff who can help meet these needs too.

The benefits of using a regulated agency include:

- assessing your care needs and tailoring a plan to meet those needs;
- advertising, interviewing and screening suitability of workers;
- arranging necessary insurance cover;
- providing training and development for care workers;
- managing workers’ pay, including compliance with the National Minimum Wage;
- managing employment relationships, including sickness, absence and disciplinary matters; and
- managing health and safety issues.

Living with dementia at home

If you are concerned about persistent forgetfulness or memory difficulties, it is important to consult a GP. They can undertake an initial examination and refer you to a memory clinic for further investigation if necessary.

The various types of support available to you and your carer are likely to involve NHS services, Adult Social Care and voluntary agencies. Some examples of services and support to help people living with dementia include:

- specialist day centres;
- respite care or short breaks;
- assistive technology and community alarms;
- home care;
- meals at home;
- community equipment;
- extra care sheltered housing; and
- carers’ support groups.

Family support

If you know someone who is worried about their memory, encourage them to visit their GP.

The more support you can give someone, the better life with dementia can be, especially in the early years. Focus on what the person can do, not what they cannot do, help with little errands or with cooking, listen to the person with dementia, and find out more about the condition.

When someone is living with dementia, they need:

- reassurance that they are still valued and that their feelings matter;
- freedom from as much external stress as possible; and
- appropriate activities and stimulation to help them to remain alert and motivated for as long as possible.

Dementia Friends

People with dementia sometimes need a helping hand to go about their daily lives and feel included in their local community. Dementia Friends is giving people an understanding of dementia and the small things they can do that can make a difference to people living with dementia – from helping someone find the right bus to spreading the word about dementia. See www.dementiafriends.org.uk for further information.

Respite care

Spouses, partners and relatives who care for a person with dementia may require a break from their caring responsibilities. This is known as ‘respite care’ and may be a regular break of a few hours a week or a period of a few weeks. It may be planned or be required in an emergency and can involve the person with dementia attending a day centre or a care worker visiting the person’s home to enable the carer to have a break. Contact the council to see if you are eligible for support with arranging these services, see page 14 for information on assessments.

Care at home

It can often be best for a person with dementia to stay living in their own home for as long as possible. This may mean that they require some support services at home.
The person living with dementia will respond best to the same care staff who know them well. Continuity of care can be provided by either care agencies or carers employed directly by the person or his or her family.

Specialist dementia day centres

A good day care service will be able to offer a range of activities and support that will enable the person with dementia to retain skills and remain part of their local community.

Specialist day centres for people with dementia should be organised and run with their needs in mind, aiming to build on their strengths and abilities. Activities may include outings, entertainment, personal care, meals, hairdressing and support for carers.

Attendance at day centres can be offered from just a few hours a week to a number of days. Contact the council or your local Alzheimer’s Society office for more details, see ‘Useful local contacts’ on page 68.

Alzheimer’s Society

This leading charity works to improve the quality of life of people affected by dementia. If you have concerns about any form of dementia, please contact your local office for information and support and access to local services. See page 68 for contact details.

Alzheimer’s Society’s National Dementia Helpline is available on 0300 222 1122 and can provide information, support, guidance and signposting to other appropriate organisations. The Helpline is open from 9.00am to 5.00pm, Monday to Friday and 10.00am to 4.00pm, Saturday and Sunday.

Paying for care in your home

Councils provide upfront information on how much people can expect to pay for home care and how charges are worked out. This information must be made available when a needs assessment is carried out. Written confirmation of how the charge has been calculated must be provided after a financial assessment.

If you have more than £23,250 in savings or capital you will have to pay the full cost of your care. The value of your home is not counted when working out charges for non-residential care. If you have more than £23,250, you should tell Adult Social Care when your savings are likely to fall below this amount.

The council calculates charges in accordance with national eligibility criteria set by the Government. This ensures people are only required to pay what they can afford, taking into account capital, income and expenditure.
Your assessment looks at how much money you have coming in, gives an allowance (set by the Government) for everyday living expenses and makes allowance for disability-related expenditure. This is the extra amount you spend as a result of your disability or illness. Adult Social Care can help you to identify these costs. They will also carry out a full benefit check and, if you want them to, assist you with claiming your full entitlement. Figures mentioned here may change over the lifetime of this Directory.

Non-means tested care and support

Care provided by the NHS is free; for example, services provided by a community or district nurse. Some people do not have to pay towards care services. For example, aftercare services provided under section 117 of the Mental Health Act are free of charge.

If you need care or support you may be eligible to claim Attendance Allowance (AA), or Personal Independence Payments (PIP). AA and PIP are non-means tested benefits. Provided you are eligible, you can receive AA or PIP regardless of how much income or capital you have. AA is payable to people over the age of 65 and PIP to those aged 16 to 64. There are different rates that can be awarded, dependent on the level and type of help you need. These can be found at www.gov.uk

Other ways to fund your care and support

It is important to seek independent financial advice if you are paying for your own care and support. There are independent financial advisers that focus specifically on care funding advice, often referred to as specialist care fees advisers. They are regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) and must stick to a code of conduct and ethics and take shared responsibility for the suitability of any product they recommend.

Housing with care combines independent living in a home with security of tenure, along with care services arranged according to need. Schemes may be run by housing associations, the local authority, voluntary organisations or private companies. Properties may be available for rent, mixed tenure or to purchase.

Supported Living

Supported Living is a term generally used to describe situations in which people (often adults with a learning disability or mental health condition) rent their home, and their personal care or support is arranged separately. This means they can change their support without having to move, or move and take the same support with them. People have greater security of tenure, and can claim a wider range of welfare benefits than in residential care.

Supported Living can be delivered in a range of settings, including individual flats or houses, clusters of self-contained flats on the same site, shared accommodation, and extra care housing. The individual, a private landlord, a housing association, a local authority or a charity may own the property.

Supported Living refers to the way in which accommodation and support are organised, rather than the amount of support. This will be tailored to individual need and can include access to support 24-hours a day if assessed as necessary, although many people do not require this – particularly with the use of assistive technology (discussed on page 14).

Shared Lives

Shared Lives is a care service for adults with learning or physical disabilities and for older people. It is family-based care provided by individuals and families. Shared Lives carers are local people recruited and trained to make sure they have the right qualities to provide care and support.

Sheltered housing

Sheltered (or retirement) housing is provided by local authority housing departments and housing associations for older people who would like to remain independent but prefer the added security and reassurance of a scheme manager and an alarm call service. A scheme manager is either based at the site or visits regularly. Many sheltered housing schemes also have communal lounges, laundry facilities, and other communal spaces.
facilities, lifts, door entry systems and specially-adapted facilities. For further information please see the Elderly Accommodation Council (EAC) website at www.eac.org.uk

Extra care housing

Extra care housing is similar to sheltered schemes, with self-contained accommodation together with some communal facilities. In an extra care scheme, instead of low-level support traditionally provided by wardens in sheltered schemes, higher levels of care and support are provided on site by a designated team of care workers, who can be available 24-hours a day.

Extra care allows you to retain your own tenancy and have care services delivered, ensuring that you can remain safely in your own self-contained accommodation. For information on extra care housing in your region, contact Adult Social Care or visit the Elderly Accommodation Council (EAC) website at www.eac.org.uk

Advocacy

Advocates can give advice, support and information to people of any age. They help you to voice your concerns and guide you through difficult or challenging times. You should consider using the services of an advocate if you feel unsure or concerned when you are faced with making an important decision about your care.

Advocates are not there to tell you what to do or to make decisions for you, but to help you express your views and make your own decisions. Councils have a legal obligation to provide an advocate to you if you need one at any stage of your care and support planning with them.

Planning for end of life

Although the subject of dying is often painful to contemplate, planning for the end of life can be a good way to share your wishes and help your family to know what you would like. Good planning for all your needs should mean that you can convey your wishes, including where you would like to die if you choose. You may wish to remain in your own home or care home in your last days and not be admitted to hospital.

When choosing a service, you should consider its end of life care philosophy and policies. Enabling people to die in comfort and with dignity is a core part of providing care. The way care professionals approach the process will be incredibly important for you, your family and carers.

The service should have an open approach to end of life care. It should initiate conversation with you and your family and work with your GP to ensure your needs and wishes are discussed and planned for. An end of life care plan should also be drawn up, as it is vital to establish your preferences and choices.

You could use the Preferred Priorities for Care (PPC) document to help with outlining your wishes. The PPC document is designed to help you prepare for the future and gives you an opportunity to think about, talk about and write down your preferences and priorities for care at the end of life.

It is also important to know that all health and social care staff must be trained in communication regarding end of life care and will be trained in assessing the needs of individuals and carers.

It is worth asking care providers whether they are working towards The Gold Standards.
Framework. This can be used in various settings, for example hospitals, primary care and care homes, to improve the co-ordination and communication between different organisations involved in providing care for someone near the end of their life.

Planning for your funeral
While you are thinking about the future, you may want to consider writing down your wishes for your funeral. This can help to alleviate pressures on your family. They may appreciate knowing your wishes and that they can make sure they are considered at your funeral. By detailing your wishes, your family can be comforted by the fact that they don’t need to make all the decisions about what you would have liked or wonder whether they are making the right choices. Things to consider are included in ‘My Funeral Wishes’, a form produced by Dying Matters and the National Association of Funeral Directors. Visit www.dyingmatters.org/page/my-funeral-wishes

You do not have to instruct a funeral director, but if you do, ensure that the director you choose is a member of either the National Association of Funeral Directors or The National Society of Allied and Independent Funeral Directors. These associations have strict guidelines that members must adhere to.

See page 70 for details of organisations that may be able to help you plan for the end of your life or your funeral.

Types of care home

Care homes (personal care only)
If you need someone to look after you 24-hours a day, but don’t need nursing care, a care home offering only personal care may be the best option. Personal care includes bathing, feeding, dressing and help with moving. It is a good idea to have a needs assessment before you choose a care home to ensure it is the best way to meet your needs, see page 14 for more on assessments.

Care homes with nursing
A care home with nursing provides the same care and support as a care home offering personal care, but with 24-hour nursing staff on hand. If you think you may need nursing care in a home, you will need to be visited by a social worker or a care manager to work out what care you will need. This visit might be in your own home, or in hospital if you’ve been ill, or in a care home. You will be fully involved in planning for your care needs.

If, after a needs assessment, a care home providing nursing care is the best solution for you, a social worker will give you information to help you find a home which meets your care requirements. The cost of the nursing care part of your fees may be paid by the NHS to the home directly: the current amount is £155.05 per week. This figure may

Activities in care homes

The word ‘activity’ can imply many different things but, in the context of a care home, it should mean everything a resident does from when they open their eyes in the morning until they go to sleep at night. Activities should stimulate residents emotionally, physically and mentally and, in a good care home, should encompass all aspects of daily life. They can range from choosing what to wear, to helping with tasks around the home or garden, to listening to the radio or joining in with an art or exercise class.

Above all, activities provide a point of interest, fun and challenge to each day. They should enable people to participate in daily life, be engaged and maintain hobbies or activities they have enjoyed throughout their life, as well as offering the opportunity to try something new, if they wish.

Lots of care homes now employ a dedicated activity co-ordinator. What they do and how they do it varies from one home to another. Increasingly, they are fully integrated into the staff team, play a key part in developing care plans and ensure that all staff appreciate the part they play in delivering high-quality activity provision.

Ensure you speak to any potential providers about the activities they provide in their care home.

Care homes and dementia

A good care home will follow the concept of a person-centred approach to care for people with dementia. This means that the unique qualities and interests of each individual will be identified, understood and accounted for in any care planning.

The person with dementia will have an assessment and an ongoing personalised care plan, agreed across health and social care. This should identify a named care co-ordinator and addresses their individual needs.

They must also have the opportunity to discuss and make decisions, together with their carers, about the use of advance statements, advance decisions to refuse treatment, Lasting Powers of Attorney and Preferred Priorities of Care. For more information on these, see pages 47 and 34.

It is important that care and support options are tailored to the needs of the individual. Make sure staff know the person you care for by providing life story books, telling staff about their likes and dislikes and providing belongings that bring comfort and have meaning for them.

Within the home, much is down to the attitude and skills of the manager and the staff. Do they provide an environment that enables a person with dementia to exercise choice and personal preferences even in the later stages of the condition? Who is the person in charge of championing dementia care best practice in the home? Further questions to consider are included in the residential dementia care checklist on page 43.

Design and technology

The design of a care home specialising in dementia needs to be based on small group living, preferably with accommodation on one level and with opportunities to go in and out of the building within a safe environment.

 Plenty of natural light and an easy way of finding one’s way around the building and grounds are essential for minimising disorientation.

Staff training

Dementia-specific training is essential to ensure that care home staff understand how best to support and care for people with dementia. Ask to speak with the Dementia Champion and question the placement if the home does not have a specific Dementia Lead.

When a local authority provides or arranges services for you, you may be asked to contribute towards the cost of care at home or in a care home, depending on your personal circumstances.

Financial assessment

To determine whether or not you will need to contribute towards the cost of your support, the council will conduct a financial assessment. This will look at your capital, savings and income. Most people are likely to have to contribute something towards the cost of their care. The value of your home is included as part of your capital in this assessment if you are moving into residential care, except in limited circumstances. It is not included if you are receiving care in your own home. If you choose not to have a financial assessment, you will be responsible for paying the full cost of your care and support.

If you have capital and savings of less than £14,250, you may be asked to contribute part of your income and the local authority may meet the shortfall.

If you have capital and savings between £14,250 and £23,250, you are likely to have to contribute towards the cost of your care. You may need to contribute part of your income, and a sliding scale operates whereby you contribute £1 for each £250 you have in capital and savings above the lower figure.

If your capital and savings amount to more than £23,250, you will likely have to pay the full cost of your care yourself. However, you are still entitled to an assessment of your needs by the council and you may be able to get some support with funding your care, see page 45.

These figures may change during the lifetime of this Directory.

If you are eligible for support from the council and you are moving into a care home or care home with nursing, you will be given a choice of homes that charge the amount the council would usually pay for someone with your needs. If the home you choose charges a fee in excess of the local authority’s funding limit, you will need to find someone else to meet the additional amount. This is often referred to as a ‘third party payment’ or ‘top-up’ (explained further on page 45).

Running out of money

If your capital and savings are likely to reduce to £23,250 through payment of care home fees, you must let the council know well in advance. It must undertake an assessment of your circumstances before deciding if it will make a contribution.

If you become eligible for the council’s support with funding your care, and the home you are living in charges more than the council’s fee levels, you must find someone to help pay the difference. This is known as a ‘top-up’ or ‘third party payment’, see page 45 for more information. If funds for a top-up are not available, you will need to find accommodation which can meet your needs at the local authority fee level.

Understanding your rights before moving into care is essential. There are a number of financial products and specialist companies that may be able to help. It is important to seek independent financial and legal advice before committing yourself to anything. See page 46 for more information.

Non-means-tested support

Some support may be available to you without the council needing to look into your finances.
Benefits
Attendance Allowance and Personal Independence Payments are non-means-tested, non-taxable benefits from the Department for Work and Pensions. There are different rates depending on the level of your needs. Everyone who needs care should consider claiming these benefits, however, they will not be paid if you are, or become, a permanent resident in a care home.

If you are entitled to the mobility component of Personal Independence Payment, this payment will not stop once you are in a care home and is not included in your financial assessment.

You may also want to consider applying for Universal Credit (if you are under pension age) or Pension Credit (if you are over pension age).

NHS Continuing Healthcare
NHS Continuing Healthcare is fully-funded care and support, provided and paid for by the NHS. To be eligible, your needs must be primarily health-related and are likely to be severe. If you are eligible for NHS Continuing Healthcare, you can receive the services in any setting, including your own home or in a care home. The NHS will pay if you need healthcare from a community nurse or a therapist as well as personal care to help you at home.

Self-funding your care
Paying for care can be an expensive and long-term commitment, so the council strongly recommends that you seek specialist information and advice before entering into any arrangements. It is important that you seek specialist advice from appropriately qualified and regulated financial advisers, see page 46 for suggested contacts.

Twelve-week property disregard
If your former home is included in your financial assessment but your other capital and savings are less than £23,250, and your income is not enough to meet your care home fees, the council may share the cost of the first twelve weeks of permanent care, provided it agrees that care is needed.

Deferred Payment Agreements
After the twelve-week property disregard period, you may be offered a Deferred Payment Agreement. This allows you to delay selling your former home during your lifetime. Any fees paid by the council will be charged against the value of your home, and must be repaid once the house is sold or from your estate.

Interest is payable throughout the period of the loan and there is also a one-off fee to join the scheme which covers all legal and administrative costs for the lifetime of the loan.

The council may limit the amount of the loan, depending on the equity in your property.

NHS Nursing Care Contribution
Whether you are a temporary or permanent resident, if you live in a care home that provides nursing care, you may be entitled to a non-means-tested Registered Nursing Care Contribution (sometimes referred to as Funded Nursing Care) towards the cost of your nursing care. This is paid directly to the home.

Additional non-care charges (also known as third party payments)
If you are eligible for the council’s support, you will be offered a choice of homes that meet the local authority’s funding rates. If you decide to live in a more expensive home and someone is able to make an additional payment for you, they will have to pay the local authority the difference between its rate and the amount the home charges. This additional payment is called an ‘additional non-care charge’, ‘top-up’ or ‘third party payment’.

You are not allowed to make this additional payment yourself, except in limited circumstances, so the responsibility usually falls to a family member, friend or charity.

Before anyone agrees to pay your ‘additional non-care charge’ (top-up), they should be aware that the amount may increase, usually once a year, and they need to be confident that they can sustain the payments for as long as they are required. They will need to sign a contract with the council to confirm that they are able to do this.

If the additional payments stop being paid for any reason, then you should seek help and advice from your council or advocate. You may have to move to a cheaper home within the local authority’s funding levels.

If you are already resident in a care home, and no additional non-care charge (top-up) was required at the time you became a resident, the home may seek to introduce one at a later date, which would need to be agreed first with the local authority. This may happen if a change to your arrangements is made at your request or with your agreement, for example you move to a nicer room.

It is important to note that councils have a duty to offer you a place at a home that accepts their funding rates. If no such place is available, an additional non-care charge (top-up) should not be charged.

Seeking financial advice

Planning for your future care and support needs can be complicated and funding care can be expensive. Professional advice may be helpful in enabling you (and your family) to identify the most suitable and cost-effective solution.

Everyone is encouraged to seek unbiased, expert advice from independent financial advisers to help work out how to pay for long-term care. Independent financial advisers are regulated by the Financial Conduct Authority (FCA) and must take shared responsibility for the suitability of any product they recommend.

Unlike advisers who are tied to particular providers, specialist care-fees advisers can offer advice on products from across the whole market.

A list of independent financial advisers who are accredited by the Society of Later Life Advisers can be found at www.societyoflaterlifeadvisers.co.uk or you can call 0333 202 0454.

There is also a number of organisations that will provide free advice about funding care and support. These are a good place to start if you are looking for information and want to see what sort of options are available.

Finding care options in your area

This Directory offers a telephone and website service allowing you to search by postcode or region for care homes, care homes with nursing and home care providers that meet your requirements across the country. Your search can be sent to you by post or email, or discussed with you over the telephone.

If you are searching online, the results can be saved and emailed to others. You can also view an electronic version of this Directory on the site and have it read to you by using the ‘Browsealoud’ function.

Whatever your care needs, this Directory and the Care Choices telephone and website service will be able to point you in the best direction, however you would like care information presented.

Please call 0800 389 2077 or visit www.carechoices.co.uk

How solicitors can help

A solicitor can give you impartial advice about wills, gifts, estate planning and Powers of Attorney. Some can also offer guidance on immediate and long-term care plans, ensuring (if applicable) the NHS has made the correct contribution to your fees.

Lasting Powers of Attorney (LPAs) allow you to appoint someone you trust to make decisions about your personal welfare, including healthcare and consent to medical treatment, and/or your property and financial affairs. An LPA is only valid once registered with the Office of the Public Guardian. It allows a person of your choice to make decisions on your behalf at a time when you may be unable.

The Court of Protection can issue Orders directing the management of a person’s property and financial affairs if they are incapable of managing their own affairs and should they not have an LPA. The Court procedure is presently very slow and the fees are quite expensive so preparing an LPA is always advisable, providing you have somebody sufficiently trustworthy to appoint as your attorney.

An ‘advance directive’ allows you to communicate your wishes in respect of future medical treatment but it is not legally binding. You may instead wish to make a living will, properly known as an ‘advance decision’, setting out treatment that you do not want to receive in specified circumstances, which would legally have to be followed, even if you die as a result.

Any proposed gift out of your estate needs careful consideration of the benefits, risks and implications, particularly on any future liability for care costs or tax liability.

If you don’t have your own solicitor, ask family or friends for their recommendations. Contact several firms, explain your situation and ask for an estimate of cost and an idea of timescales involved. Many firms will make home visits if necessary and will adapt their communications to meet your needs. It’s important to find a solicitor who specialises in this area of the law. The Citizens Advice Bureau offers an advice service and will be able to recommend solicitors in your area.

Comments, compliments and complaints

You should feel able to complain about any aspect of your support which affects your happiness or comfort. This might be anything from the way you are treated by staff to the quality of the food you are served. You should also feel free to make comments and suggestions about possible improvements to your surroundings and the services provided.

Making a complaint should not be made difficult for you and should not affect the standard of care that you receive whether in your own home or in a care home or care home with nursing. Care services are required under national essential standards of quality and safety to have a simple and easy to use complaints procedure.

If you are concerned about the care that you, a friend or a relative are receiving, it makes sense to speak to the manager of the service about your concerns before you take any further action. The problem may be resolved quite easily once they are made aware of it. However, if you need to make a formal complaint, you should initially contact the registered owners of the service. They have a duty to respond to any complaints made.

If you have a complaint about a breach of regulations, contact your local office of the Care Quality Commission (see adjacent for more information about the CQC).

If your local authority has arranged and funded a place for you in a care home or has contributed to a home care service, another option is to speak to your social care department. Call 0113 222 4405 or write to The Complaints Manager, Leeds City Council, Adults and Health, PO Box 848, Complaints, Leeds LS1 9PQ.

If you have been unable to resolve your complaint, you can contact the Local Government Ombudsman on 0300 061 0614 and ask them to assist you. The Local Government Ombudsman looks at complaints about councils and some other authorities and organisations, including adult social care providers (such as care homes and home care providers). It is a free service. Its job is to investigate complaints in a fair and independent way.

Inspecting and regulating care services

Health and social care services must be registered to show that they meet a set of standards.

The Care Quality Commission (CQC) is the independent regulator of health and social care in England. It registers care providers and inspects and rates services. When things go wrong, the CQC can also take action to protect people who use services.

After an inspection of a care home or home care agency, the CQC publishes a report of what it found. The report looks at how well the service meet the CQC’s five key questions: Is the service safe? Effective? Caring? Responsive to people’s needs? Well-led?

Each care home and home care agency will get an overall rating of outstanding, good, requires improvement or inadequate. It will also get ratings for each key question. The ratings mean you can easily see where a service is performing well, and where it needs to improve.

It’s always a good idea to check inspection reports and ratings when choosing a care service. You can find reports and ratings on the CQC’s website (www.cqc.org.uk). Care providers must also display their latest rating at their premises and on their website.

You can also tell the CQC about your experiences of care – good or bad. It can use your information to see where it should inspect next, and what to look out for when it does. If you want to share your experience of care, visit www.cqc.org.uk/share

Out-of-county care

You can choose a care home outside your home county. You may want to be closer to friends or family members or you may want to relocate to another part of the country.

If your care home place is state-funded, speak to the local authority about who is responsible for your care fees, especially if you choose a care home in another region. Any home you choose must be suitable for your assessed needs and comply with the paying authority’s terms and conditions.

You should seek further advice before making your decision.

For help finding care providers in Leeds and other regions, contact this Directory’s phone service on 0800 389 2077 with details of your requirements.

Protecting vulnerable adults

Vulnerable adults may experience abuse, neglect and worse. A vulnerable adult is a person aged 18 years or over who may be unable to take care of themselves or protect themselves from harm or from being exploited.

What is adult abuse?
Abuse is mistreatment that violates a person’s human and civil rights. The abuse can vary from treating someone with disrespect in a way which significantly affects the person’s quality of life, to causing actual physical suffering.

It can happen anywhere – at home, in a care home or a care home with nursing, a hospital, in the workplace, at a day centre or educational establishment, in supported housing or in the street.

Forms of abuse could be physical, sexual, psychological, emotional or financial. It could also cover the issues of modern slavery, self-neglect and institutional abuse – where the abuse affects more than one person within an organisation and is not addressed by the service’s management.

Who might be causing the abuse?
The person who is responsible for the abuse may be known to the person abused and could be:

- a paid carer or volunteer;
- a health worker, social care or other worker;
- a relative, friend or neighbour;
- another resident or service user;
- an occasional visitor or someone who is providing a service; or
- someone who deliberately exploits vulnerable people.
If you think someone is being abused, call Adult Social Care on 0113 222 4401. Your concerns will be taken seriously and will receive prompt attention, advice and support. The Adult Social Care team is available Monday to Friday, 9.00am to 5.00pm. Outside these hours you can:

- call the Emergency Duty team on 07712 106378; or
- call the police on 101, or 999 if it is an emergency.

If the abuse is also a crime such as assault, racial harassment, rape or theft you should involve the police to prevent someone else from being abused. If the police are involved Adult Social Care will work with them and with you to support you.

If you are worried about contacting the police you can contact Adult Social Care on 0113 222 4401 to talk things over first. If immediate action is needed dial 999.

You can also:

- contact the Care Quality Commission (CQC) on 0300 061 6161 if the vulnerable adult is living in a registered care home, care home with nursing or receiving home care services; or
- let a public service professional, such as a social worker, community nurse, GP, probation officer or district nurse know your concerns. They have responsibilities under the county’s adult protection procedure and can advise you about what to do next.

The Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS)

There is a barring system for all those intending to work, or working with children and vulnerable adults.

This service combines the criminal records checking and barring functions. For disclosure information and services, visit www.gov.uk/dbs

Care home owners, home care agencies and employment agencies that supply care workers are required to request checks as part of a range of pre-employment checks, including disclosures from the DBS.

Care providers and suppliers of care workers are also required to refer workers to the DBS where, in their view, the individual has been guilty of misconduct that harmed or placed at risk of harm, a vulnerable adult. People who know they are confirmed on the list but seek employment in care positions will face criminal charges including possible imprisonment. It is also an offence for an employer or voluntary organisation to knowingly employ a barred person in a regulated activity role.
You’ll find Park Avenue close to the transport links and local amenities of Roundhay, overlooking Soldiers Field and close to Roundhay Park with its stunning 700 acres of parkland and gardens. We also have a lovely enclosed courtyard area with a fountain, which is the perfect place for residents to entertain guests in the warmer months.

We want all our residents to feel completely at home, regardless of the length of their stay. Our care team take the time to get to know each resident, tailoring the care we provide to best suit their individual needs. We ensure each resident retains as much independence as possible.

Wetherby Manor is a beautifully appointed luxury care home in the centre of Wetherby, adjacent to St James’ Parish Church, within easy reach of all the local amenities.

We provide specially designed accommodation for clients requiring residential, nursing or dementia care. We also provide respite care for those individuals who need a little extra help for a short time.

All of our 59 spacious and luxuriously furnished rooms have private ensuite bathrooms, with accommodation arranged in small living groups in order to create a homely environment where residents feel comfortable and settled.

Additional facilities include landscaped gardens, bar and bistro, hair and beauty salon, library area and cinema, together with a varied events programme arranged by our lifestyle co-ordinator.

We have also introduced self-contained apartment-style living suites, designed for more independent couples or individuals but with the benefit of living in a supported environment.

You are welcome to come and visit our Home Manager, Judith Scurr, and the team to see our lovely facilities for yourself.

We look forward to showing you around – we’re sure you’ll be impressed.

There’s lots of bloomin’ good reasons why you can trust Blossom Home Care to care for an elderly relative, or adult, with home care requirements. Here are just five...

✓ Our online feedback system enables authorised relatives to log on at anytime from anywhere in the world and read the notes our carers upload after every visit. This gives everyone real peace of mind. Accessed via the Internet the system keeps relatives in touch and informed.

✓ We believe in giving the very best care because that’s what you deserve. Our carers are experienced care workers who are rewarded well for delivering above and beyond. Our Carers are also fully vetted as we have a zero tolerance approach to Carers that have a criminal record. Our minimum visit is 50 minutes because we want our carers to be able to spend time with our clients, chatting and doing the things that really matter to the client and us. Often the people we care for want to continue to do things for themselves and participate in the social activities that can make a real difference to their quality of life so we help facilitate this.

✓ Our Qualified Nurse Oversees client care and wellbeing. Our Holistic approach to care means our Nurse is available to help with any worries or concerns identified by the client, the carer or the family. There is no additional charge for this service and the feedback helps prevent deteriorating health issues and consequently reduces hospital admissions.

✓ Our 24-hour, 7 day a week call out service means we’re always there when you need us. Our aim is to meet all appointments. If a client is expecting a visit we will do everything in our power to get there on time. Every Blossom client is given the Directors and Managers mobile numbers and, because we never turn our phones off, we are contactable and accountable all day, every day.

✓ We have Key Carers for each client. Blossom clients have a small team of friendly faces dedicated to them and matched based on client needs and background. This enables trust to develop and bonds to be built. It also increases our ability to spot any changes since our last visit.
