Welcome

Welcome to the 2019/20 edition of the Bedfordshire and Luton Directory for Adult Care and Support Services. Bedford Borough, Central Bedfordshire and Luton Borough Councils have worked jointly with publisher, Care Choices to develop this Directory.

Making a decision about how best to receive the care and support to meet your individual needs is very important. We hope that this Directory will help by giving you some ideas on the range and variety of services that are available across Bedfordshire and Luton.

We are committed to helping you retain as much independence as possible, helping you to live in your own home for longer and continuing to live close to your family and friends.

We hope you will find the information you need about what support or care is available for yourself, or for a relative or friend. Regardless of whether you pay for your care and support, or whether your local council contributes towards it, we will do our best to help you find the care and support that meets your needs.

As three councils are responsible for delivering Adult Social Care services across Bedfordshire and Luton, we will refer to all services as coming from ‘Adult Social Care’ throughout this Directory. More information about the services delivered by each of the councils is available at:

Promoting your health and wellbeing

Adopting a healthier lifestyle can benefit everyone. By making a few small changes to the way you live, you can make big changes to your health and wellbeing.

Keep moving

Regular physical activity can help reduce your risk of heart attack, stroke, high blood pressure, diabetes and osteoporosis, as well as raise your mood and self-esteem. It can also raise levels of ‘feel good’ hormones and reduce stress levels. Inactive people have nearly twice the risk of developing heart disease.

Adults should aim to be active daily. Over a week, activity should add up to at least 150 minutes (two and a half hours) of moderate activity in bouts of ten minutes or more – one way to approach this is to do 30 minutes on at least five days a week.

Simple ways to get more physically active include:
- walking the dog;
- digging the garden;
- using the stairs rather than taking the lift;
- getting off the bus one stop before your destination; or
- joining a dance group, jogging/walking/games club or the gym.

Sports Development – Bedford Borough
The team aims to provide quality opportunities at all levels of sport, promoting sport as an activity that enables individuals to develop their own performances to their maximum potential, whilst highlighting the personal and social benefits of a healthy lifestyle. Sports Development is concerned with increasing sporting opportunities for all members of the community.

Making changes to your lifestyle
Would you like some support to improve an element of your lifestyle? We all know that eating well and moving more contributes to reducing the risk of the onset of preventable diseases such as type 2 diabetes, cardio-vascular disease, stroke and some types of cancer. The Lifestyle Hub in Bedford Borough and the Active Lifestyle Team in Central Bedfordshire can connect you with other services to best support you with making the changes you would like and support you in making positive, healthier lifestyle choices.

Speak to your GP or practice nurse – they can refer you to the relevant lifestyle service. The service will then call you to book you in for an appointment with a lifestyle adviser at a time to suit you. Evening and Saturday appointments are now available in Bedford Borough.

You can also find a lifestyle adviser on the Wellbeing Walk every Friday at 11.00am, starting from the Higgins Museum, Castle Lane or every second Monday of the month at 2.00pm at the Mindful Sport Table Tennis Session in the Higgins museum.

The lifestyle adviser will not tell you what to do; they will work with you to agree a plan that covers what you want to achieve and what will work for you. The team may be able to connect you with different services that help you achieve your goals as well as supporting you whilst you engage with those services.

The service could help you to:
- get more active;
- stop smoking;
- reduce alcohol intake;
• connect you with counselling and support services (in Bedford Borough);
• talk about healthy eating and swaps you could make;
• feel empowered about moving forward towards long-term, sustainable lifestyle changes;
• lose a little weight (if appropriate);
• set goals to work towards; and
• find other services that may be more appropriate to your needs whilst you begin to make these changes.

It can also offer support for carers.

For more information, please contact your local service.

You can visit country parks to walk your dog, go for a walk or a run, take the family for a day out or simply get away from it all and enjoy nature.

The physical activity programme is open to all, activities are suitable for beginners and novices, so whether you are looking to re-engage in something you have tried before, or want to try something new, the Active Lifestyle Team can help.

As well as helping you to improve your physical health, many activities include social groups and opportunities to volunteer.

Healthy eating

A healthy balanced diet and having regular eating times will help you keep track of what you eat. Don’t skip breakfast. Breakfast gives you the energy you need to face the day along with some of the vitamins and minerals needed for good health. You may also find it useful to:

- reduce your fat intake by choosing lean cuts of meat and trimming any visible fat, measuring oil rather than pouring it, and finding an alternative to frying and roasting foods;
- cut down on sugar by using the labelling system to check that you’re not having too much sugar; and
- cut down on salt by trying to eat high-salt foods only occasionally, or in small amounts.

Reading the labels will make it easier to make healthy choices. The red, amber and green labelling system shows you where the fat, sugar or salt is too high (red). You can then make a choice to change to something which is lower (green/amber). A small change can make a big difference.

Aim to have five portions of fruit and vegetables every day:

- try fruit sliced over cereal for breakfast;
- snack on fruit mid-morning or mid-afternoon;
- put some extra vegetables, beans or lentils in your casseroles and stews (and less meat);
- stock up on frozen vegetables for easy cooking; and
- remember – a third of your lunch and your dinner plate should be vegetables or salad.

Remember to drink enough fluid during the day. The average fluid intake for an adult is approximately 8-10 cups a day. This could be water, fruit juice, tea, coffee or milk.

Stop smoking

There are over 4,000 chemicals in a cigarette and 69 of these are known to cause cancer. As soon as you quit smoking, your body begins to repair itself. The longer you stop for, the more repair work your body can do. Every year thousands of people successfully quit smoking. If you want to stop smoking, help is available from the NHS Stop Smoking Service which exists to support people.

For free help, advice and support to give up smoking, contact your local NHS Stop Smoking Service using the details here.

Alcohol harm reduction

Drinking more than the recommended daily allowance of alcohol can increase your risk of developing a drinking-related illness, and approximately ten million people in England drink above the recommended guidelines every year.

Men and women are advised not to regularly drink more than 14 units a week. Spread your drinking over three days or more if you drink as much as 14 units a week.

There are about two to three units of alcohol in a standard 175ml glass of wine (ABV 13%), and three to four units in a pint of strong lager, beer or cider (ABV 5.2%). ABV is the percentage of alcohol in the drink.

Drinking less reduces the longer-term risk of serious diseases, such as liver disease and stroke, and will improve the condition of your skin, have a positive effect on sleep and will give you more energy and money. Drinking less also means you’ll be less likely to develop high blood pressure and put on weight. If you want to cut down how much you’re drinking, a good way to help achieve this is to have several drink-free days each week.

If you have any concerns about whether you, or someone close to you, might be drinking harmful or hazardous amounts of alcohol, visit www.nhs.uk/oneyou/drinking and see a range of helpful resources and information.

Community involvement

Good neighbour and village care schemes

Care schemes are ‘good neighbour’ schemes run by residents with support from the Bedfordshire Rural Communities Charity (BRCC), providing access to help and support and acting as a safety net for local people, regardless of age.

The schemes can help to lessen the impact caused by a decline in community services and facilities such as public transport, shops, Post Offices, doctors’ surgeries and pubs. The schemes can also help to reduce feelings of isolation and exclusion experienced by some when families and friends have moved away.

Accessing the scheme can help people to remain living independently at home for longer. Each local scheme is unique, run by local residents who offer a wide range of support, from one-off practical jobs or transport through to befriending or regular social events.

For information about where the schemes operate in Bedford Borough and Central Bedfordshire, or how you can get involved, contact Justine Hunt at the BRCC.

Day opportunities

It’s not easy when you are at home all day. Getting out, taking part in leisure activities and socialising with friends can make all the difference.

If you want to get out and about during the day to meet other people and get involved in leisure activities or education, you can do this at a number of leisure centres, libraries, housing schemes, day centres and clubs. There are services and clubs for older people, people with learning disabilities, and those with mental health conditions.

Lunch clubs offer a chance to get a hot meal and to socialise. They can also make life easier if it is hard for you to prepare your own meals at home. Transport is sometimes available to help you get to the club or centre. You may have to pay towards the cost of using these day services. There is also a small charge for meals.

Contact your local council to find out what is available near you.

Volunteering

Volunteering is a positive way to spend time and be involved in the local community. Research shows that the benefits of volunteering can include:

- A longer life
  Being a volunteer extends your life expectancy when compared with non-volunteers.

- Ability to cope with ill-health
  Volunteering can help people come to terms with their own illness and help take their mind off their own problems.

  - Meeting new people
    Volunteer is a good way to meet people. This can be vital for older volunteers and people who might be isolated or not particularly integrated into society.

  - Improved family relationships
    A study comparing older volunteers with older non-volunteers showed that the volunteers had better relationships with their family.

- Improved self-esteem and sense of purpose
  Volunteering can bring back your self-esteem and motivate you. Improved self-esteem can have an effect on other areas of your health and life.

- Making a difference to your local community
  Volunteering is a form of social action that can also benefit your wider local communities.

There are several agencies co-ordinating opportunities to volunteer, including:

Community and Voluntary Service Bedfordshire (CVS) • Web: www.cvsbeds.org.uk

Community Action Bedfordshire (CA)

Blue badges

The Blue Badge scheme provides a national range of parking concessions for disabled people with severe mobility problems.

It is designed to help severely disabled people to travel independently, as either a driver or passenger, by allowing them to park close to their destination.

For further information, contact your local council; details are on page 4.

Staying independent and living safely at home

Keeping warm at home

- Try to keep the temperature of your living room at 70°F/21°C and the rest of the house heated to at least 64°F/18°C.

- Make sure that you have some warm slippers or shoes that have a good grip. Try to keep your feet up as the air is cooler at ground level.

- Put on several warm, light layers of clothing which will keep you warmer than one thick layer. Have hot drinks, use a hot water bottle and, if you’re sitting down, put a blanket over you.

- Keep moving – avoid sitting down for long periods as muscles become stiff and slow when they are cold. Even housework will generate body heat and help to keep you warm.

Bedford Borough

To find out what help you may be entitled to that can improve the warmth and insulation in your home, please contact Bedford Borough Council (see page 4 for details).

Central Bedfordshire

If you live in Central Bedfordshire, please contact Central Bedfordshire Council’s Private Sector Housing Team which can provide assistance for eligible households. The Private Sector Housing Team provides assistance for eligible residents who are in fuel poverty or living in poor housing conditions.

For more information about Central Bedfordshire Council’s discretionarional assistance schemes, please visit www.centralbedfordshire.gov.uk/housing/keeping/warm.aspx or email PSH@centralbedfordshire.gov.uk

If you don’t have access to the internet, please call 0300 300 8767.

Luton
Please contact the Luton Energy Doctor scheme, which offers healthy heating grants. For example, you may be eligible for a new heating system. The scheme can signpost you to information about income maximisation, warmth intervention and health and safety at home.

If you are interested in the Luton Energy Doctor scheme, please call 01582 546789, or email energydoctor@luton.gov.uk

Priority Services Register

If you are a pensioner, have long-term ill-health, are registered disabled or have a hearing or visual impairment, you may be eligible for extra help offered by energy suppliers.

One service is the Priority Services Register. To ensure you receive additional services, you need to sign up to your energy supplier’s Priority Services Register.

If you have different suppliers of electricity and gas, you will need to register with each. If you have a carer, they can register on your behalf. There is no charge and you can register for all or some of the services available.

For more information, contact the Citizens Advice consumer helpline on 0345 404 0506.

Social care alarms

Community alarm and monitoring services enable you to call for help any time of night or day using a pendant, a wristband or a pull cord. The system will put you in touch with an operator who can hear your voice and speak to you. These are available across the whole of the area and you can also pay for someone to respond to a call in an emergency if you don’t have any friends or relatives nearby.

Telecare systems

Telecare uses the social care alarm system to alert the control centre if you fall, or if there is a fire for example. Telecare can help you live independently in your own home by giving peace of mind to you and your relatives. The equipment is simple to use and can be tailored to meet your own circumstances.

Telehealth services are used by the NHS to involve patients in monitoring their own health conditions, using home-based equipment linked with health professionals. The system detects problems early so you can receive help quickly and avoid hospital.

Adult Social Care works with local agencies to provide Telecare across the area and can help you decide which system is best for you. There are also a number of independent providers who offer Telecare which you can purchase yourself.

Assistive technology checklist

We suggest you consider the following questions before buying any assistive technology. If you are in any doubt about what technology might help meet your needs, you can contact your council or visit www.askara.org.uk

You can download and print this checklist at www.carechoices.co.uk/checklists

Suitability

Does the equipment support your specific needs?
Are you willing to use it?
Will it fit into your everyday life and routine?
Have you tried a demo of the equipment?
Do you understand what the equipment is for?
Do you need to take it with you when you leave the house? Is it transportable?
Does the equipment have any limitations that would make it unsuitable for you?
Will it work alongside any assistive technology you already have?

Will it need to be installed by a professional?
Can the retailer provide you with training in using the equipment?

Reliability

Will it work if you have pets or live with other people, e.g. could someone else set off a sensor alarm by accident?
Have you read reviews of the particular piece of equipment you are looking at? Consider these before making your purchase.
Can you speak to someone who already uses it?
Does it require batteries? Find out how often they will need changing and whether the equipment will remind you to do this.
Is it durable? If you might drop it, is it likely to break?

Usability

Is a simpler piece of equipment available, e.g. a pill case rather than an automated pill dispenser?
Does the equipment need a plug socket, and will its wire cause a trip hazard?
Is it easy to use? Can you read/hear it clearly and are any buttons big enough for you?
Are you able to use it? Are there any aspects you don’t understand?
Is it portable?

Cost

Do you know how much it costs?
Will you need to pay a monthly charge?
Are there alternative solutions that might be free?
Is there a cost associated with servicing the equipment?

   - Keep your cooking area clean and clear of flammable items.

2. Conduct a bedtime check!
   - Unplug any electrical appliances that are not being used.
   - Check that the cooker is turned off.
   - Close all internal doors.

3. Have an escape plan!
   - Know how to escape quickly from your home in the event of a fire.

Home security

Advice and help from the Bobby Van team

People aged over 65 can get a free security check from the Bobby Van team, supported by the Bedfordshire Police Partnership Trust, a registered charity. The Bobby Van team can carry out a survey of your house to identify any vulnerable areas and, where appropriate, improve the security with locks, door chains and viewers etc. It is also working in partnership with Bedfordshire and Luton Fire and Rescue Service and will fit smoke detectors.

The service is generally free, but as the Bobby Van team is part of a wider charity, donations of any amount are always welcome.

The chances of an elderly person becoming a repeat victim of crime in the first six months after an incident drop from 14% to just 1% if they have had a visit from the service.

The Bobby Van service is for those people over the age of 65 and some vulnerable or disabled people.

If you would like a visit from the Bobby Van team, or would like more information about the scheme, please phone 01234 842619 or visit www.bedspolicepartnership.org

Adapting your home

Leading an independent and active life with choice and control is important to us all and helps to contribute to our health and wellbeing.

An assessment with an Occupational Therapist and the use of adaptive equipment can help to achieve this.

An Occupational Therapist can meet with you within your home and, through an assessment, can identify hazards, discuss equipment or adaptations and provide information and advice which may assist with retaining your independence, such as an additional banister or equipment to assist with access.

Major adaptations, such as a bathroom adaption or stair lift, can also be discussed. These may be funded through a Disabled Facilities Grant if you are eligible, but this will require a financial assessment. and, in some cases, it may be necessary for you to make a financial contribution towards the required adaptation.

An Occupational Therapist may prescribe and order simple pieces of equipment for use within your home. They will complete any demonstrations of equipment and ensure that you are happy and safe with their use. They are also able to advise carers on moving and handling techniques within the home.

If you have any queries regarding your circumstances, contact Adult Social Care and discuss your situation. An assessment of needs will help determine what support you require to retain your independence.

Support in your own home

To enable people to live in their own homes for as long as possible, a range of community support services is available. These include help with day-to-day tasks, such as cleaning, shopping, community meals, gardening, and handyperson services. You would be expected to pay for these services. There is also a wide range of help available through local voluntary and community groups.

Domiciliary or home care

Home care covers help with personal care like dressing, bathing, toileting and prompting the taking of medication. Care workers need to be properly trained, particularly in moving and handling and the use of hoists for some tasks.

Care workers can call in on a daily basis to assist with any of the tasks described above. Depending on the level of help required, their visits can be very short or up to several hours. Generally, visits are available from 7.00am until 10.00pm. Some people will need multiple visits per day. The hourly rate for these types of services depends on the services required, the time of day and the location.

Live-in care

In some cases, it’s preferable and more economical to have a care worker actually living in the home. This is called 24-hour live-in care and can accommodate people with a very high dependency on a permanent basis. It can also provide respite breaks for regular carers and short-term support following hospital discharge.

Live-in care can be arranged for a short period, for example, a week, or on an ongoing basis. Typical charges for this service depend on the amount of care and the particular skills required. Live-in care is also available to people with permanent physical or mental health difficulties who require long-term ongoing care.

Making life easier at home

If you’re having difficulties with everyday tasks at home, these simple solutions could make life easier and keep you independent. These are a starting point; other solutions are available which might better suit your needs.

Finding it difficult to get in and out of chairs? Try putting a piece of hard board under the seat base. Alternatively, buy chair raisers, a higher chair or an electric riser chair. Also try taking regular gentle exercise.

If you can’t reach your windows, could you move furniture out of the way? Ask someone to help if you need to move heavy furniture. There are also tools for opening and closing windows.

Struggling to keep warm/cool? Consider a fan or heater. Is your house insulated? Are there any draughts? You may also be eligible for the winter fuel payment from the Government. Visit www.gov.uk/winter-fuel-payment

If you have trouble using light switches, think about replacing your switches for ones that are easier to use. Consider handi-plugs or light switch toggles, or there’s even technology available so that you can turn your lights on and off using speech.

Use subtitles if you can’t hear the TV, or buy wireless headphones. Do you need a hearing aid? Request an assessment from your council.

Do you forget to take your tablets? Try making a note of when you’ve taken them, or buy an automatic pill dispenser or pill box. If you struggle to open your medicine, you can ask your pharmacist for advice on alternative packaging that could make it easier for you.

Can you reach everything in your cupboards? If not, try a handi-reacher or rearrange your kitchen so the things you use most are within easy reach.

If you are having problems with preparing food, consider buying ready-chopped options or try a chopping board with spikes. There are also long-handled pans, teapot tippers and lid grippers that could help. Palm-held vegetable peelers or a food processor might be a solution and meal delivery services are also available.

Is eating and drinking becoming difficult? Large handled cutlery could help, or non-slip mats for the table. Lightweight cups and mugs with two handles could also be a solution.

Using taps can be made easier by fitting tap turners. You could also consider changing to lever-style taps which might be easier for you to use.

Visit www.carechoices.co.uk for further assistance with your search for care
If moving whilst in bed is a problem, have you thought about using an over-bed pole? You might also want to buy a pillow raiser or change your bedding so it’s lighter.

Is it becoming difficult to get dressed? If so, specially adapted clothing is available, or you could buy a long-handled shoe horn, a dressing stick or a button hook. If you are having a lot of difficulty, consider home support, see page 18.

Clocks are available with large numbers or lights if you can’t read the time in bed. You can also buy clocks that speak the time.

If you are finding it harder to read in bed, consider an e-reader that allows you to change the font size. Some also have integrated lights. Look for bedside lamps with a step-on or button switch if yours are difficult to use.

Do you struggle to get in and out of bed? You could learn new ways of moving around, purchase a leg lifter or a hoist or install grab rails for support. Seek advice about these options. If the bed is the issue, you could buy an electric adjustable bed or raise the bed to the right height.

If it’s hard to hold your toothbrush, try a toothbrush gripper. You might also benefit from having an electric toothbrush or sitting on a stool while brushing your teeth.

You might like to buy a raised toilet seat, or a seat with a built in support frame if it’s hard to use your toilet. Flush lever extensions are also available.

Has it become more difficult to wash? Items are available, like long-handled sponges and flannel straps. You could also consider a slip resistant bath mat, grab rails, a half step to help you get in and out of the bath or a bath or shower seat. Tap turners can also be used in the bathroom.

To find out more about using adaptations to help you in the home, call: Bedford Borough Council on 01234 267422; Central Bedfordshire Council on 0300 300 8303; Luton Borough Council on 01582 547659; or One Call for Community Occupational Therapy on 0345 602 4064 for an initial Occupational Therapy assessment for equipment and minor works, or on 0300 300 8050 for an Occupational Therapy assessment for major works.

All home care providers are regulated and inspected by the Care Quality Commission, which publishes inspection reports on its website, www.cqc.org.uk/ When considering a service, it’s always a good idea to check its report.

Before you make any decisions regarding the provision of care, be sure to contact several providers and ask for a ‘Service User’s Guide’ and their charges and a draft contract between you and the care provider. Adult Social Care also audits the quality of the services that are being used locally on an annual basis, and further information is available through their websites.

Leaving hospital and staying independent

Adult Social Care and the NHS work very closely together to ensure that hospital patients are discharged safely and are able to return to home life as quickly as possible. Social care staff are available to help with information and advice when you are ready to leave hospital.

No matter which hospital you are in, you can request an assessment of your needs to help you stay independent and regain confidence when you return home. The assessment involves asking you about your needs and what is required to help you live safely and independently at home.

There will also be an explanation of any charges that may be made. A relative, carer, or a member of the hospital staff may also approach the hospital social care team and ask them to carry out an assessment, but this will not go ahead unless you agree.

If you already have a social care service in place, Adult Social Care will make an assessment of any other needs you may have after your stay in hospital, see page 44. Adult Social Care can also introduce you to local voluntary organisations who can help, short-term, with a variety of services such as laundry and domestic cleaning, or sitting services.

Carers should also be offered an assessment and may need advice and support. The hospital social care team is available to discuss any issues with them and can give them details of carers’ support groups.

Sensory services for people with an impairment

If you have a hearing impairment or are deaf, have poor sight or are blind and are having difficulties with everyday living tasks, such as preparing meals, using a telephone or getting out and about, then Adult Social Care may be able to arrange a number of services to help you.

Adult Social Care will carry out an assessment of your needs and will let you know if you are eligible for help such as information, advice, or pieces of minor equipment to help you to manage in your home. Contact Adult Social Care to request an assessment, contact details are on page 4.

You’re in charge

How do I get help and support?

Adult Social Care aims to help you remain independent for as long as possible. Adult Social Care will help you access advice and information so that you know what is available to you. This might include connecting you to local resources or community services. If you feel that you have an ongoing care and support need and require assistance, or that you care for someone with care and support needs, Adult Social Care will work with you to assess your needs and agree what outcomes you would like to achieve.

Advocacy

If needed, you have the right to an advocate when contacting Adult Social Care for care and support. Advocates help people to express their wishes and understand the information they are given. They are there to listen and help people feel valued in their own community. Support is available for people of any age, whatever their disability, religion, culture or gender.

POhWER provides independent and confidential advocacy services for clients of Adult Social Care in Central Bedfordshire and Bedford Borough.

You can talk to POhWER advocates in the strictest confidence, either by asking for a referral from your care manager or contacting them directly. Contact details are on page 61. Support is also available for carers, see page 45.

Adult Social Care can also put you in touch with local organisations offering help and support.
Assessments

When you contact Adult Social Care, they will discuss your needs with you and make an assessment of what is important to you.

The assessment will:

• clarify what support you could or do receive from natural support networks such as your family or neighbours;

• determine what local services are available to help you meet your needs;

• help you identify what will support you to maintain your independence;

• ascertain what is important to you to help your wellbeing; and

• establish whether you are eligible to receive services that Adult Social Care contributes towards or whether you will need to pay for some, or all, of the services yourself.

Do I have a say in what services I get?

If you are assessed as having eligible care and support needs, Adult Social Care will work with you to understand how you would like these needs to be met. Adult Social Care works to enable your potential and you will be at the centre of all conversations. Adult Social Care will listen to what is important to you, identify your strengths and understand your ambitions and aspirations. They will also work with you to identify how you would like your support delivered, whether there are friends and family that you would like to be involved and what is available to support you in your local community.

Reablement

Increasingly, people who are seeking more support than information and advice, particularly older people and people with a physical disability, will be offered reablement. This is short-term support designed to help people become as independent as possible. It is tailored to individual needs to help you learn (or re-learn) the important tasks you need for everyday life, and gives you the best opportunity to regain skills and independence so that you need not rely on longer-term support. The duration of the service is up to six weeks. There is currently no charge for reablement services.

Self-Directed Support

Adult Social Care wants to support you to have as much choice and control over your care as possible. This can be achieved through developing a support plan which enables you to identify how and when your needs will be met. If you are eligible, Adult Social Care can offer Direct Payments (through pre-paid cards) which enable you to purchase your own support (if required) directly from local services and independently of Adult Social Care. This means that you can make real-time decisions about how your needs are met.

Personal Budgets

A Personal Budget is the amount of money agreed by Adult Social Care to meet the cost of the eligible needs of adults who are assessed as needing support and who are eligible for financial support from the local council. Some of this money might be provided by the council for these. Your Personal Budget can be:
• managed by Adult Social Care, who will arrange the services for you to meet your assessed needs; or

• taken as a Direct Payment so that you can choose who provides the care and support Adult Social Care has agreed you need; or

• part managed by Adult Social Care and part Direct Payment.

Your Personal Budget can, with the agreement of Adult Social Care, also be managed by someone you nominate to act on your behalf.

Direct Payments

If you are assessed as eligible for support, Adult Social Care will let you know how much money it should cost to meet your eligible needs. This is called your ‘Personal Budget’. If you wish to arrange part or all of your own care and support and your local council is contributing towards the cost of your support, you can receive its contribution through a Direct Payment. However, Direct Payments cannot currently be used to pay for residential or nursing care.

With your Direct Payment, you can:

• employ a care worker or personal assistant(s);

• pay the care agency you choose to provide your care worker or personal assistant;

• pay people in your family who care for you – but this cannot be a person who lives with you, for example, your husband or wife; or

• buy equipment or pay for activities agreed in your support plan.

Direct Payments are available to all eligible adults, including people with a physical or sensory disability, older people, people with a learning disability and people with mental health needs.

For more information on paying for care, see page 52.

Support for carers – do you look after someone who could not manage without you?

If you look after someone on a regular basis, i.e. a parent, child, friend, neighbour or partner, in an unpaid capacity, you are a carer. You may not describe yourself as such, it’s just what you do, but without your support, the person would not be able to manage their daily life.

Looking after someone can be a positive experience but it can also be an isolating, challenging and exhausting role, both physically and mentally. Carers may find they have little or no time for themselves or to look after their own health and wellbeing.

All carers are entitled to an assessment of their needs by the local council’s Adult Social Care department, which will help to identify support they can access. This assessment will provide an opportunity for the carer to discuss their role and identify services which they may qualify for. It may be possible for the person being cared for to have a short stay in an alternate setting – this is called respite care and will enable the carer to take a break from their responsibilities. It may also be possible for the person being cared for to access day opportunities outside the home, again offering the carer a short break during the day; or the carer might just need someone to stay whilst they go out, having peace of mind that the person being cared for is safe. The assessment is free but there may be a charge for some of the services which are available.

If a carer is eligible for support after the assessment, a support plan will be drafted. The support plan will take into account the carer’s financial means, and any help available to meet the costs of the support will be identified.

Housing with care and support

Independent Living (with support)

Sheltered or supported housing is a practical step if you would like more security and companionship but don’t need to move into a care home. In a sheltered or supported housing scheme, you would live independently in a flat or bungalow within a larger complex, sometimes around a garden.
or communal facility, linked to a central control centre for security. Some schemes have access to a resident or non-resident manager who provides housing support, advice and a link to services.

These schemes are usually provided by councils and housing associations. Your local council can give you information about schemes in your area and the criteria to access them.

Independent Living (with extra care and support)

In an Extra Care housing scheme, instead of low-level support traditionally provided by managers in sheltered schemes, higher levels of care and support are provided on-site for people with assessed needs by a designated team of housing managers and care workers, who can be available 24 hours a day. Extra Care housing can provide an alternative to residential care for people with higher levels of care needs.

Extra Care housing allows people to retain their own tenancy and have care services delivered, ensuring that they are able to remain safely in their own self-contained accommodation.

Independent Living Schemes offer a wide range of on-site facilities, including restaurants and other communal areas where residents can pursue their interests, remaining active and independent. Apartments are available both for rental and shared ownership. Independent Living Schemes have flexible care services available on site which give residents and their families peace of mind that their new homes will strike the right balance of privacy, independence and support. There is also a real focus on social activity with lots of shared space for both residents and the community. Contact your local council for details.

Living with dementia

Being diagnosed with dementia does not mean that you will be unable to lead a positive and full life. With the right support, you can live well with the condition and continue to do the things you enjoy for a number of years following diagnosis.

Dementia is a progressive brain disease affecting individuals differently – this means that the symptoms will get worse over time. Dementia usually manifests itself initially in memory issues but goes on to affect other functions of the brain, meaning a person could:

- have difficulty with organising daily activities, prioritising tasks and communicating with others;
- experience changes in their mood, judgement or personality;
- have trouble making decisions;
- start making excuses for their forgetfulness; or
- have difficulties with short-term memory while distant memory remains good.

Although there is no cure, treatments can slow the progression of the disease, and, with support, there are ways to make it manageable. As the illness progresses, you will need to rely on others more. Dementia is much more common in older people but can be found in people as young as 30.

It is important to seek advice from your GP if you are concerned about memory difficulties. They will be able to carry out simple tests and, where necessary, refer you to a memory clinic which will complete a further, more detailed examination.

There are various types of support available to people with dementia and their carers through the NHS, Adult Social Care and voluntary agencies. Some examples of these services include:

- specialist day centres;
- respite care or short breaks;
- assistive technology and social care alarms;
- home care;
- meals at home;
- community equipment;
• extra care/sheltered housing; and
• carers’ support groups, including lunch clubs and cognitive stimulation groups.

There are also some simple practical steps which you can take to help yourself with memory issues:
• keep your mind active by reading or completing crosswords, Sudoku and other mind exercises;
• take regular exercise;
• eat a healthy balanced diet; and
• use a diary and make lists or use prompts to support you with remembering appointments or medication for example.

Messages specifically for carers/families

If you know someone who is worried about their memory, encourage them to visit their GP to discuss their concerns.

The more support you are able to give to someone, the better their life will be, especially in the early years. Attending a ‘Dementia Friends’ session for an hour can help carers understand dementia and how it affects people. These sessions are led by local volunteers with Alzheimer’s Society; details can be found at www.dementiafriends.org.uk

Focus on what the person can do, not what they cannot do. Support them where necessary with little errands or cooking, listen to the person with dementia and find out more about the condition.

When someone is living with dementia, they need:
• reassurance that they are still valued and that their feelings matter;
• freedom from as much external stress as possible; and
• activities and stimulation to help them remain alert and motivated for as long as possible.

You may find that dementia changes a person’s personality or behaviour, which you may find out of character, but it is vital to remember that a person with dementia is not being deliberately difficult; often their behaviour is an attempt to communicate something. If you are able to establish what this is, you can resolve their concerns more effectively.

Try to put yourself in their place and understand what they are trying to express and how they may be feeling. For information on dementia services available in Bedford Borough and Central Bedfordshire go to www.memoryinbeds.org.uk or phone 0300 111 9090.

Residential care homes

All care providers in the country must be registered with the Care Quality Commission (CQC). All services are inspected and rated by the CQC, which reports on its findings.

These inspection reports and ratings are available from the care service or the CQC (visit www.cqc.org.uk). Further information about the CQC can be found on page 52.

Types of care home

Care homes offering personal care only
If you require support 24 hours a day, but don’t need nursing care, a residential care home offering only personal care may be the best option. Personal care includes bathing, feeding, dressing and help with moving.

Care homes with nursing
If you require support 24 hours a day which may also include nursing care, you will need to be visited by a social worker or a care manager to discuss and assess the support you will need. This visit might be in your own home, or in hospital if you’ve been ill, or in a residential care home. You will be fully involved in planning for your care needs.

If a care home providing nursing care is the best solution for you, your social worker will give you information to help you find a home which meets your care requirements. The cost of the nursing care part of your fees is paid by the NHS to the home directly; the current amount is £165.56 per week.

The figures mentioned above may change, check with your local Adult Social Care department. See page 52 for more information on paying for your care.

If your needs assessment shows that a residential care home is the best option, Adult Social Care can give you information about the range of homes available to help you decide which care home will suit your needs. Comprehensive lists of care homes and care homes with nursing begin on page 63.

You need to choose a home you can continue to afford. Some people choose an expensive home and then use up all their savings; this may result in a new financial and care assessment and a move to a different care home. For assistance with finding a provider, please visit this Directory’s website at www.carechoices.co.uk

Out of county care
You have the right to choose to live in any care home in England. You may choose to live near to where you are living now, or move to a different area to be closer to your family, or in a specialist home such as one run by a religious organisation. There are special arrangements if you want to live in Wales, Scotland or Northern Ireland and you should ask your social worker for advice on this.

Details of care homes across England can be found on the Care Quality Commission website, www.cqc.org.uk or on the Care Choices website at www.carechoices.co.uk

Inspecting and regulating care services

Health and social care services must be registered to show that they meet a set of standards.

The Care Quality Commission (CQC) is the independent regulator of health and social care in England. It registers care providers and inspects and rates services. When things go wrong, the CQC can also take action to protect people who use services.

After an inspection of a care home or home care agency, the CQC publishes a report of what it found. The report looks at how well the service meets the CQC’s five key questions: Is the service safe? Effective? Caring? Responsive to people’s needs? Well-led?

Each care home and home care agency will get an overall rating of outstanding, good, requires improvement or inadequate. It will also get ratings for each key question. The ratings mean you can easily see where a service is performing well, and where it needs to improve.

It’s always a good idea to check inspection reports and ratings when choosing a care service. You can find reports and ratings on the CQC’s website (www.cqc.org.uk). Care providers must also display their latest rating at their premises and on their website.

You can also tell the CQC about your experiences of care – good or bad. It can use your information to see where it should inspect next, and what to look out for when it does. If you want to share your experience of care, visit www.cqc.org.uk/share

Paying for your care

Will I have to pay for services?
In line with national law and guidance, you will usually have to pay something towards the cost of your care. The amount you have to pay will be determined by an assessment. There is no charge for this assessment. Adult Social Care will discuss with you any costs relating to the service(s) you need and will look at your financial circumstances. Adult Social Care can also assess and advise you if there are any benefits that you are entitled to.

If you have capital and savings of more than £23,250, not including your home, you will usually have to pay the full cost of any care you receive within your home or the community.

If you have capital and savings of more than £23,250, including your home, you will usually have to pay the full cost of your care if you move permanently into a care home or care home with nursing.

If you have capital and savings of less than £14,250, your contribution will be assessed only on your income and the local authority may meet the shortfall, subject to local funding limits. If you have between £14,250 and £23,250 in capital and savings, a sliding scale operates whereby the local authority will include £1 per week for each £250 you have above the lower figure in addition to your income.

Assuming you have been assessed as eligible for care, you may be entitled to some of the following financial assistance and support.

What will you have to pay for residential care?
If you are assessed as needing care in a care home, the value of your home is included when assessing capital unless: your partner or a relative who is over 60 or incapacitated, or a child under 16 who you or a former partner maintain still lives there.

If apart from your property, your savings are less than £23,250, and your income is not enough to meet your care home fees, Adult Social Care might be able to help with your care costs for the first twelve weeks. This is called the twelve-week property disregard period. After this time, you will need to apply for a Deferred Payment Agreement, where any money from your local council is regarded as a loan and will need to be repaid once your house is sold, see Deferred Payment Agreements on page 54.

To work out how much Adult Social Care might pay, you must ask for a needs assessment and a financial assessment. This will define your eligible care needs and how they will be best met and will determine your financial situation. If you are assessed as eligible for residential care, the homes you consider must be able to meet your assessed needs.

If the local authority is contributing towards your care costs, your choice of care home will usually be limited to those that accept your local authority’s funding level. If you choose a more expensive home, you will need to arrange a third party to ‘top-up’ the difference. You are not allowed to do this yourself if your capital is below £23,250.

Top-ups

If the home you have chosen charges more than any contribution offered by Adult Social Care, you must find someone to help pay the difference – a ‘top-up’ payment. Whoever does this, whether family or a benevolent charity, they should realise that they may have to pay this for some time. Alternatively, you would have to find a cheaper home.

Understanding your rights before arranging care is essential. There are various financial products and specialist companies who may be able to help. It is important to seek advice before committing yourself.

Whatever your circumstances

Remember:

- If your partner still lives at home, they will not be means-tested.
- If you have a private pension, only half will be considered when you are assessed, providing you are paying half to your partner.
- Your assessment will be made up of two elements, a care part and a financial one.
- A nursing home will generally be more expensive than a care home offering personal care only.

Consider claiming:

- Universal Credit.
- Income support.
- Pension Credit.

Definitely claim:

- Attendance Allowance, if you’re aged 65 or over, worth either £58.70 or £87.65 per week depending on your care needs, though you will lose this after 28 days if you receive financial help from Adult Social Care.
- Personal Independence Payment, if you’re under the age of 65, a non-means tested, non-taxable benefit from the Department for Work and Pensions.

Up-to-date figures of payments for eligible people can be found at www.gov.uk.

Always seek advice

Independent help is available to guide you through your financial options. There may be a number of solutions to retaining your capital whilst paying for care.

Please contact your local authority for information on its contribution to care fees. Some of the figures mentioned here may change over the life of this Directory.

Deferred Payment Agreements
If you are eligible, you may be able to set up a Deferred Payment Agreement. If set up, this means that, after the twelve-week property disregard period (mentioned on page 52), any financial help from Adult Social Care will be charged against the value of your home and recovered once your house has been sold. However, Adult Social Care may limit how much it will pay and it may affect your entitlement to Pension Credit if your property is not seen to be on the market and becomes treated as capital by the Department for Work and Pensions (DWP).

Attendance Allowance
This is a non-means tested, non-taxable benefit from the DWP paid at the lower rate of £58.70 per week for those needing care by day or night, and at the higher rate of £87.65 per week for those needing care both during the day and night. If you are paying for your own care in full you can continue to receive Attendance Allowance but if you receive financial help from Adult Social Care, Attendance Allowance is not payable after 28 days.

NHS Funded Nursing Care Contribution
Whether you are a temporary or permanent resident, if you live in a care home that provides nursing care and you have been assessed as having nursing needs, you may be entitled to NHS Funded Nursing Care Contribution (currently £165.56 per week) towards the cost of your nursing care, following an assessment on admission to determine your nursing needs.

This is paid directly to the home. The remainder of the funding will be provided by you as a self-funder or via Adult Social Care following an assessment.

NHS Continuing Healthcare funding
NHS Continuing Healthcare (NHS CHC) is fully-funded care and support, provided and paid for by the NHS. Getting NHS CHC can be difficult as the criteria you must meet are strict. If you are eligible, you are likely to have severe issues surrounding your health.

The term ‘primary healthcare need’ can be misleading – you won’t be automatically entitled to this funding just because you are living with dementia, or have an ongoing illness. Eligibility for NHS CHC depends on an assessment of the nature, intensity, complexity and unpredictability of the actual care that is required to manage your needs.

If you are eligible for NHS CHC, you can receive the services in any setting, including your own home or a care home. The NHS will pay if you need healthcare from a community nurse or a therapist as well as personal care to help at home. For more information, visit Bedfordshire Clinical Commissioning Group’s website at www.bedfordshireccg.nhs.uk

Running out of money
If your capital is likely to reduce to £23,250, you must let Adult Social Care know well in advance, as it may step in to help with your care fees. It must conduct an assessment of your situation and may make a contribution.
Essential information

Finding care in your area

Looking for care in your area? Want to know the quality rating of providers you’re considering? Care Choices, publisher of this Directory, has a website providing comprehensive details of care providers as well as essential information.

You can search by postcode, county or region for care homes, care homes with nursing and home care providers that meet your needs across the country.

Your search can be refined by the type of care you are looking for and the results can be sent to you by email. They can also be saved and emailed to others.

The website includes detailed information for each care provider, including the address, phone number and the service’s latest CQC inspection report and rating (see page 52), indicating the quality of care provided.

You can also view an electronic version of this Directory on the site and have it read to you by using the ‘Recite Me’ function. Visit www.carechoices.co.uk

Healthwatch

Healthwatch is the independent consumer champion created to gather and represent the views of the public. It plays a vital role at both a local and national level to make sure that your experiences of health and social care are taken into account by service providers.

Healthwatch enables people to share their views and concerns about health and social care services and helps to build a picture of where services are doing well and where they can be improved. Information received from the public about local services is shared with the organisations responsible for commissioning or delivering local health and social care services. Healthwatch will also work with the providers and commissioners to help make sure that services are designed to meet local people’s needs.

Healthwatch can make a difference by:

• providing information about the care choices you have;
• talking and listening to people from every part of your community;
• holding services to account for the care they provide;
• being a part of your community and answerable to you; and
• improving local health and social care through your feedback.

You can contact Healthwatch to find out more about local health and care services, to raise any issues you have experienced, to comment on services you have received or to find out how to volunteer with Healthwatch.

Healthwatch is about helping you get the best out of your local health and social care services.

How solicitors can help

A solicitor can give you impartial advice about wills, gifts, estate planning and Powers of Attorney. Some can also offer guidance on immediate and long-term care plans, ensuring (if applicable) the NHS has made the correct contribution to your fees.

Lasting Powers of Attorney (LPAs) allow you to appoint someone you trust to make decisions about your personal welfare, including healthcare and consent to medical treatment, and/or your property and financial affairs. An LPA is only valid once registered with the Office of the Public Guardian. It allows a person of your choice to make decisions on your behalf at a time when you may be unable.

The Court of Protection can issue Orders directing the management of a person’s property and financial affairs if they are incapable of managing their own affairs and should they not have an LPA. The Court procedure is presently very slow and the fees are quite expensive so preparing an LPA is always advisable, providing you have somebody sufficiently trustworthy to appoint as your attorney. An ‘advance directive’ allows you to communicate your wishes in respect of future medical treatment but it is not legally binding. You may instead wish to make a living will, properly known as an ‘advance decision’, setting out treatment that you do not want to receive in specified circumstances, which would legally have to be followed, even if you die as a result.

Any proposed gift out of your estate needs careful consideration of the benefits, risks and implications, particularly on any future liability for care costs or tax liability.

If you don’t have your own solicitor, ask family or friends for their recommendations. Contact several firms, explain your situation and ask for an estimate of cost and an idea of timescales involved. Many firms will make home visits if necessary and will adapt their communications to meet your needs. It’s important to find a solicitor who specialises in this area of the law. Citizens Advice offers an advice service and will be able to recommend solicitors in your area.

Safeguarding adults

What is adult safeguarding?
Adult safeguarding means protecting a person’s right to live in safety, free from abuse and neglect. Safeguarding adults applies to any person aged 18 or over who is at risk of abuse or neglect because of their needs for care and support.

What is abuse?
Abuse is a violation of an individual’s human and civil rights by any other person or persons. It can consist of a single act or repeated acts and can take the following forms:

Physical abuse – including hitting, slapping, pushing, misuse of medication, restraint or inappropriate physical sanctions.

Sexual abuse – including rape and sexual assault or sexual acts to which the adult has not consented or was pressured into consenting.

Domestic abuse – including psychological, sexual, financial, emotional abuse, so-called ‘honour’ based violence, coercive or controlling behaviour.

Psychological abuse – including emotional abuse, threats of harm or abandonment, deprivation of contact, humiliation, blaming, controlling, intimidation, coercion, harassment, verbal abuse, isolation or unreasonable and unjustified withdrawal of services or supportive networks.

Self-neglect – including neglect of self; neglect of the domestic environment including hoarding; and risky lifestyle behaviour. This may also pose a risk to others. Self-neglect may arise from inability or unwillingness to care for oneself, or both in complex interaction with each other.

Exploitation – either opportunistically or premeditated, unfairly manipulating someone for profit or personal gain.

Modern day slavery – including slavery, human trafficking (which includes recruiting, transporting, transferring, harbouring or receiving a person through the use of force, coercion or other means for the purpose of exploiting them); forced labour; and domestic servitude.

Financial or material abuse – including theft, fraud, exploitation, coercion in relation to an adult’s financial affairs or arrangements, including in connection with wills, property, inheritance or financial transactions, or the misuse or misappropriation of property, possessions or benefits.

Neglect and acts of omission – including ignoring medical or physical care needs, failure to provide access to appropriate healthcare and support or educational services, the withholding of the necessities of life, such as medication, adequate nutrition and heating.

Discriminatory abuse – including discrimination on grounds of race, gender and gender identity, disability, sexual orientation, religion, and other forms of harassment, slurs or similar treatment.

Organisational abuse – including neglect and poor care practice within an institution or specific care setting like a hospital or care home. This may range from isolated incidents to continuing ill-treatment.

Who commits abuse?
Vulnerable adults may be abused by a wide range of people, including:

• relatives and family members;
• professional staff;
• paid care workers;
• volunteers;
• other service users;
• neighbours;
• friends and associates; or
• people who deliberately exploit vulnerable people and strangers.

Where does abuse happen?
Abuse can happen anywhere, for example:

• in the street;
• at home;
• at a friend’s house;
• where you work;
• at a day centre, residential home or college; or
• somewhere you spend your free time.

What are the signs of abuse?
Possible signs of abuse could include:

• injuries – bruises, broken bones and burns;
• lack of personal care;
• bills not being paid;
• sudden loss of assets, friends or family threatening an individual to gain access to money etc;
• not getting to medical appointments;
• changes in behaviour or mood; or
• unexplained withdrawal from normal activities and friends, family or community.

How can I report my suspicions of abuse?
Initially, you should tell someone you can trust. This could be a:

- family member;
- friend;
- member of staff;
- social worker or nurse; or
- an advocate.

If you or the individual are in immediate danger, need medical attention or if a crime has been committed, call the emergency services on 999.

If you or an adult you know may be at risk of abuse, you should contact your local council’s Safeguarding Team:

Making a complaint

Complaints about care homes and social care services

If you have a complaint about a care home, care home with nursing or any other social care service, the first thing you should do is tell the home or service. This applies whether you pay for your care or your local council funds it.

By law, every care home and social care service must have an efficient procedure for dealing with complaints. Ask for a copy of the service’s complaints procedure so that you know what you must do and how they will deal with your complaint.

Care funded by your local council

If you are not happy with the reply you receive from a care service when you complain, you can take your complaint to your local Adult Social Care department. You will need to follow their complaints procedure – your social worker, care manager or the department itself will explain what to do.

Central Bedfordshire Council
Go to www.centralbedfordshire.gov.uk and search ‘adult social care complaints’. Or contact the Customer Relations Team, email customer.relations@centralbedfordshire.gov.uk or call 0300 300 4995.

Bedford Borough Council
Go to www.bedford.gov.uk/council-and-democracy/have-your-say/complaints-and-other-feedback

The care service or the Adult Social Care department should try to sort out your complaint themselves and put things right to prevent the same thing happening again.

If you are not satisfied with the final reply from the care service or your local Adult Social Care department, you can speak to the Local Government and Social Care Ombudsman (LGSCO).

The Local Government and Social Care Ombudsman, PO Box 4771, Coventry CV4 0EH
Tel: 0300 061 0614
Web: www.lgo.org.uk/making-a-complaint

Complaints about care that you pay for yourself

You can ask the Local Government and Social Care Ombudsman to investigate your complaint if you are not satisfied.

Go to www.lgo.org.uk/making-a-complaint and search ‘adult social care complaints’. Or contact the Local Government and Social Care Ombudsman, email complaints@lgo.org.uk or call 0300 061 0614.

End of life care

‘End of life’ care (also known as palliative care) refers to the care of people who are in the last year and final stages of their life, services are in place to allow them to live in as comfortable and dignified a way as possible until they die. It is about providing support that meets the needs of both the person who is at the end stage of life, rather than dying, and the people close to them. People should be treated with dignity and respect, and where possible, in the place of their choosing to ensure their wishes are met, and to ensure that they receive high standards of care accessed through the appropriate pathways at the end of their life.

Online/local support for end of life includes:

- The NHS website – provides information on all aspects of end of life care, visit www.nhs.uk/conditions/end-of-life-care
- The Bedfordshire Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) – provides advice on palliative and end of life care, visit www.bedfordshireccg.nhs.uk/page/?id=5155
- Hospice UK – supports the work of palliative care providers nationwide, as well as patients and their families, visit www.hospiceuk.org
- Dying Matters – provides advice on what to do if you are concerned about the quality of the end of life care being received by someone you know, visit www.dyingmatters.org/page/concerns-about-end-life-care
- Palliative Care Hub (PCH) – people wanting to use Bedfordshire Palliative Care Hub will need to be registered with a Bedfordshire GP. The Bedfordshire PCH is a first point of contact for patients, families, carers and health and social care professionals. The PCH also provides face-to-face planned visits, crisis visits and night sits. Advanced care planning

It is never too early to think about the consequence of becoming ill or frail and to talk through with your loved ones and professional carers:

- What kind of care would you want if you became unable to speak for yourself.
- What else would be important to you.

Wishes and plans for your future or end of life care can be recorded in an Advance Care Plan which others can refer to if they need to make decisions on your behalf.

- If you record your wishes, you are more likely to get the care you want.

An Advance Care Plan is very personal. You can write about anything that would make your care more comfortable, such as where you would prefer to be looked after and by whom. You can also make more formal plans, which might include:

- appointing someone to make decisions for you (Lasting Power of Attorney);
- specifying treatment you would not want (Advance Decision to Refuse Treatment);
- funeral planning; and
• donating your organs.

If you want to make an Advance Care Plan, talk to your doctor, nurse or other professional looking after you.
