Welcome from Gloucestershire County Council

I’m delighted to welcome you to the 2020 edition of the Gloucestershire Care and Support Guide, where choice is very much our focus.

Many people still believe that care means either a care home or a paid care worker who comes to you. We all know that we can do more to look after our health; but did you know there are many different ways of finding help and helping yourself to live well for longer, independently and in your own home?

This guide offers solutions to help keep you happy, healthy and safe. It also introduces you to the wide range of options available before you make any decisions about care services and how to pay for them.

If you do decide that a care home is still the best option for you, this guide can help with that too.

It provides useful information, from the right questions to ask when you visit a care home, through to getting independent financial advice about paying for care.

We know that it is difficult when we start to worry that we aren’t coping. It’s equally difficult when we start to worry about a loved one. Gloucestershire County Council is committed to helping residents worry less and live more, and this guide is an important resource to help you do just that.

Gloucestershire Carers Hub is a commissioned service by Gloucestershire County Council and NHS Gloucestershire Clinical Commissioning Group.
Introduction from the Gloucestershire Care Providers Association

The Gloucestershire Care Providers Association (GCPA) is a membership body open to all independent providers of social care. GCPA promotes and protects the work and interests of all independent providers of care and support services (private, not-for-profit and charitable organisations) delivering care to vulnerable people across Gloucestershire.

Members work with older people, those with learning disabilities, physical disabilities, people with mental health issues and people in Supported Living environments, along with Personal Assistants.

Membership of the GCPA is a sign of a progressive organisation, committed to delivering the highest standards of quality care and keen to play an active part in the county’s wider social and health care community.

Representatives of the GCPA attend regular strategic and liaison meetings with commissioners, to review and influence contracts, frameworks, policies and procedures. The GCPA works in partnership with the Acute Trust, Gloucestershire County Council and Clinical Commissioning Group. The GCPA works with its members together on a variety of initiatives aimed at both tackling immediate issues facing vulnerable people and designing effective, quality ways of working for the future.

The GCPA’s main aims are to:

- represent the interests of independent care and support providers and promote membership within the county;
- work in partnership with Gloucestershire County Council, Gloucestershire Clinical Commissioning Group, Care Quality Commission, Acute Trust and other statutory and regulatory bodies in Gloucestershire to help improve quality social and health care delivery;
- encourage the sharing of best practice amongst members;
- negotiate annual fee reviews and contractual revisions within the county with commissioners;
- organise workshops and training opportunities in partnership with various organisations; and
- support managers through peer-to-peer network meetings.

Part One: Help to be healthy, active and independent

This part of the guide is about helping you find out what is available in Gloucestershire and what you can do to help yourself, or the person that you care for, to be healthy, active and independent for as long as possible. It will help you find out where to go to get a bit of extra help and what is available locally.

There is information on what to do if you need more help, what care and support is and how it works in part two of the guide.

Being healthy

Good health is about your mind as well as your body. Feeling physically fit and feeling good about yourself can help you to achieve more of the things that you want to do in life. There are lots of things you can do to be as healthy as possible and to remain as independent as you can. This chapter will help you find useful information to help you with your physical, mental and sexual health.

Health advice

If you need medical help and advice but it is not an emergency, you can ring NHS 111. This is the NHS non-emergency telephone number and is available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year. Calls are free from landlines and mobiles.

Gloucestershire Healthy Lifestyle Service

The lifestyle choices we make for ourselves and for our family can dramatically impact our health in later life. There are lots of great reasons to make lifestyle changes; we all have things that we want to be healthy and well for, and that are important to us, whether that’s in the short- or long-term.

Making positive changes to our diet, activity levels, alcohol consumption and stopping smoking now can have a massive impact in the longer term and can help reduce the risk of illnesses such as heart disease, high blood pressure, type 2 diabetes, stroke and cancer. It’s not all about the future though; changing your lifestyle has immediate benefits. You may find that you feel less stressed, that you sleep better, look and feel much better in yourself.

Whether you would like to lose weight, stop smoking, become more active or drink less alcohol, Gloucestershire’s Healthy Lifestyles service is free, and the team is on hand to help and support you.

Mental health

Five Ways to Wellbeing

At any given time, one in four of us will be experiencing a mental health issue. Some of the most common mental health conditions, such as depression, anxiety and stress, can be relieved by following some simple steps called the Five Ways to Wellbeing, explained below.

1. Connect with people – your family, friends, colleagues and neighbours. Speaking to people over the telephone or online can help, but there’s nothing like being in the company of others to boost your mood.

2. Get active – take a walk, go cycling, join a dance class, go swimming or play a game of football. Find an activity that you enjoy and make it a part of your life. Anything that raises your heart rate – even cleaning the house – can help.

3. Keep learning – give yourself a sense of achievement and a new confidence. Why not sign up for that cooking course, start learning to play a musical instrument, learn a new language, or figure out how to fix your bike?

4. Give – even the smallest act can count – whether it’s a smile, a thank you or a kind word. Larger acts, such as volunteering at your local community centre can improve your mental wellbeing and help you make new friends.

5. Be mindful – be more aware of the present moment, including your feelings and thoughts, your body and the world around you. Some people call this awareness ‘mindfulness’ and it can positively change the way you feel about life and how you approach challenges.

These are proven techniques to help boost your general wellbeing. They are things we can all incorporate into our daily lives and following these steps to the best of your ability is a good place to start.

Are you feeling vulnerable? Do you need to talk to somebody now?

Moodzone on the NHS website has information on common problems, what you can do now and mental wellbeing audio guides.
If you, a friend or a relative are experiencing mental health issues for the first time and need help, but are not in a crisis, please contact your GP or ring 111.

Looking after your sexual health

Sexual health is about positive and respectful approaches to sexuality and sexual relationships.

Good sexual health is more than the absence of sexually transmitted infections (STIs), it’s mostly about being empowered to have safe sexual experiences, free of coercion, discrimination and violence.

There are several simple things you can do to protect yourself from poor sexual health experiences, STIs, and/or unplanned pregnancy, for example:

- practising safe sex – using a condom every time;
- if you feel that you are at risk of having an STI, get tested as soon as possible;
- speak to your GP about your contraception choices; and
- if you misuse drugs or alcohol, seek help. It’s more common to have unsafe sex when using drugs or alcohol.

This is not an exhaustive list, and everyone’s circumstances are different.

Hearing loss

It is easy to underestimate the personal and practical issues that can result from a hearing impairment, but a lot can be done to help, and it doesn’t always need to involve a specialist service. Signs of hearing loss can include:

- difficulty hearing other people clearly and misunderstanding what they say;
- asking people to repeat themselves; or
- listening to music or watching television with the volume turned up higher than other people require.

If you are experiencing hearing loss and you’ve never been provided with a hearing aid, you should ask your GP for a hearing test and possibly an appointment with a consultant.

Hearing aids come in all different shapes, sizes and types. They can help you hear everyday sounds like the telephone and make it much easier to follow conversations. You may also be able to enjoy listening to music, the TV and radio again. If you have tinnitus, you may find it disturbs you less when you wear hearing aids.

You can get free batteries from clinics at a range of hospitals and local centres across the county.

Look after your eyes

Visit your GP if you’re concerned about any aspect of your eyes or vision. Some health conditions, like diabetes, show themselves in the eye and an optometrist is trained to detect these. They will refer patients to other healthcare professionals as appropriate.

If appropriate, you may be referred to a consultant ophthalmologist who will assess whether you qualify for certification as either sight impaired (partially sighted) or severely sight impaired (blind).

If they think you do qualify, the ophthalmologist will complete a Certificate of Vision Impairment (CVI) and send it to the Sensory Services team at Gloucestershire County Council. Someone from Adult Social Care will contact you to discuss your registration options. More information on visual impairments can be found on page 47.

Dementia
If you are worried about your memory, or someone else’s memory, it’s a good idea to get things checked out with your doctor. This is because some things that cause memory issues are treatable. Seeking help early helps to ensure you receive the right treatment and support to help you live well with dementia.

Your GP will discuss your concerns, conduct a physical health check and request that blood tests are done. If it is felt appropriate for you to have a more detailed memory assessment, your GP will work with specialist dementia services like Managing Memory Together. If dementia is diagnosed, you will be offered a treatment and support plan which includes a referral to the local Alzheimer’s Society Dementia Advisor Service, for non-clinical advice, guidance and support.

If you feel unable to talk to your GP about your memory or that of a family member, you can contact Managing Memory Together or Alzheimer’s Society for advice and information.

Being active

Regular exercise and being active is good for both our physical and mental health; it can help us remain independent for as long as possible.

Improving strength and balance can also help to prevent falls and keep us from slowing down, so we can keep living the life we want.

Using technology such as a smart watch is a useful way of keeping track of your daily activity.

Some of the benefits of keeping active include:

- reduced risk of developing a life-threatening disease;
- greater likelihood of maintaining or reaching a healthy weight;
- greater sense of wellbeing; and
- improved sleep and increased vitality.

There are many activities that can help reduce the risk of falls, including:

- community exercise groups specifically developed for increasing strength and balance;
- tai chi, a form of exercise that has many health benefits and can improve balance;
- swimming, which improves muscle tone and strength while the body is supported;
- walking in a group, which can benefit fitness as well as being a social activity; and
- dancing, which can improve fitness and balance.

If you are concerned about falling, talk to your GP about being referred to an exercise group through the ‘exercise on prescription’ scheme or to your local district council for advice on suitable activities in your area. Remember, before beginning a new exercise regime, it’s a good idea to talk to your GP.

You can find more information about exercise, fitness, falls prevention and what activities you can do to improve your strength and balance on the NHS website. Information on being active as you get older and preventing falls can also be found on the Age UK website. Lastly, see page 20 for more information on getting out and about.

Walking

Walking is a great way of keeping fit and healthy. A brisk ten-minute walk a day can have a positive impact on your health, and why not think about replacing short car journeys with walking instead?

Some of us need help to go for a walk or use transport. There is more information about walking aids, wheelchairs and mobility scooters on the Your Circle website by searching ‘walking aids’ and choosing the information tab.

Shopping

Shopmobility schemes hire out or lend manual wheelchairs, powered wheelchairs and powered scooters to anyone who needs help with mobility. In Gloucestershire, there are shopmobility centres in Cheltenham and Gloucester.

You don’t have to be registered as disabled, have a blue badge, or be in receipt of disability benefits to take advantage of any shopmobility service. Pre-booking is advised.

There may also be community transport schemes available where you live that offer a service to take you shopping once or twice a week. In addition to doing your shopping, it’s a great way of helping you get out and about and making new friends. There is more information on community transport on page 21.

Gloucestershire Community Hubs

Gloucestershire Community Hubs are places within communities where older people can meet to become more active, make new friends and try new things.

The hubs might be based within extra care or sheltered housing schemes or at community centres and are open to everybody.

The hubs help people to remain independent in their own homes, maintain their physical and mental wellbeing and be connected with like-minded people.

Each hub offers a broad range of activities that vary from hub to hub, so contact your local Community Hub for further information. Activities are usually low cost and often accessible on a pay as you go drop-in basis or as part of an extended half or whole day service.

The diagram below includes a selection of the types of activities available.

Drop In Centres

If you have an illness or a disability and need help or advice about day-to-day life, you can visit a Drop In Centre.

They provide a safe and friendly environment where you can pop-in and find out about what is available in your area. There are regular talks by local community police, fire service, neighbourhood wardens and other support services. This service is free.

The Drop Ins also offer advice on:

- managing finances, correspondence and housing related issues. This includes home-seekers and bidding for housing;
- healthy living and eating, for example how to plan a menu and shop, including shopping online;
- how to remain safe in the home and in the community; and
- joining the countywide Keepsafe scheme. The scheme works with local shops and businesses who will offer a safe place if you experience difficulties whilst in the community.

Connect with people

Social interaction is an important part of our daily lives. As we get older, or following an illness or bereavement, we can find it more difficult to get out and about. Sometimes family and friends are not able to visit. Someone popping in just for a cup of tea and a chat on a regular basis can help to reduce feelings of loneliness or isolation.

Many people use smartphones and tablets to talk to their friends and family wherever they are around the world. These can help you stay in touch face-to-face. Devices to help you keep in touch are available from high street retailers. Find out how to choose the best one for you and how to use it on page 8.

Getting out and about

Driving
If you receive certain benefits, you may be eligible to join the Motability Scheme and lease a car or scooter. The Motability Scheme provides an affordable, worry-free way for people with disabilities to lease a car, scooter or powered wheelchair in exchange for their mobility allowance. The scheme is operated by Motability Operations Ltd, under contract to Motability, a registered charity.

Driving as you get older
Once you reach 70, you must renew your driving licence every three years. You can renew it online with the DVLA for free if you are 70 or over – or will be 70 in the next 90 days, if:

• your British licence has expired – or it is going to expire within 90 days;
• you are a resident of Great Britain (there is a different service in Northern Ireland);
• you meet the minimum eyesight requirement; and
• you are not prevented from driving for any reason.

The DVLA will automatically send you the D46P application form 90 days before your 70th birthday. You can use the D1 application for a driving licence form if you have not got the D46P form. You can also pick one up from a post office. Postal applications take up to three weeks.

Safer Driving with Age (SAGE)
If you are worried about driving as you get older, SAGE is a programme providing older drivers with support, guidance and coaching to enable you to drive for as long as it is safe to do so.

Bus passes
If you are of pensionable age, or have a disability, and/or cannot drive for medical reasons, you are entitled to free off-peak travel on local buses anywhere in England.

The pass entitles you to use most local bus services throughout England running between 9.30am and 11.00pm on weekdays. In some rural areas, you may be able to use your bus pass before 9.30am. You can use your bus pass to travel for free at weekends, but night services and some park and ride buses will charge a fare. Some libraries in the county can issue bus passes.

These organisations may be able to suggest local volunteer car services that may be able to provide you with transport. For more information on community transport and volunteer car services, visit the county council’s website.

Learning

Adult Education in Gloucestershire
The Adult Education Service aims to enable adults in Gloucestershire to use learning to improve their lives and those of their families through personal development and enhanced skills for employment. Every year thousands of adults sign up for courses, including:

- employability and pre-employability programmes;
- learning for parents, families and children;
- literacy, numeracy and information technology classes; and
- vocational courses leading to nationally recognised qualifications.

You can search for courses online by subject, location, even by time and day of the week. The listings include Course Information Sheets with more detail explaining what the course covers, where and when you can do it, how much it costs, any special conditions and how to enroll.

University of the Third Age (U3A)
U3A (University of the Third Age) brings together people in their ‘third age’ to develop their interests and continue their learning in a friendly and informal environment.

Your ‘third age’ is when you have finished working full-time or raising your family and have time to pursue your interests or just try something new.

U3A has a ‘university’ of members who draw upon their knowledge and experience to teach and learn from each other, but there are no qualifications to pass – it is just for pleasure. Learning is its own reward.

It is all voluntary; a typical U3A will be home to many activity groups covering hundreds of different subjects – from art to zoology and everything in between.

There are lots of branches in Gloucestershire and each has its own website where you can find more information.

Equipment and adaptations

Did you know that you can get equipment from shops, pharmacies on your local high street, at a retail park or by going online? Use the checklist on page 40 to get the equipment that’s right for you.

Embrace technology

Technology isn’t just for the young and home technology can help you stay independent for longer.

You can control home assistants, like Google Home or Amazon’s Alexa for example, with your voice to set reminders or find information online. Robotic vacuums and lawnmowers are now better than ever, and ‘wearables’ like smart watches and fitness trackers can monitor your heart rate, activity and sleep – and give you nudges to get active.

Mobility equipment

There are many types of equipment that can help you live independently for as long as possible. Something as simple as fitting a grab rail in the right place to help you get up and down steps safely and easily, or equipment to help you get out of bed, could be all you need. See pages 26 to 29 for more ideas.

Before you buy any costly equipment, it’s important to get advice to ensure your money is well spent. There are several ways of getting help and advice:

- the online self-assessment AskSARA at www.asksara.org.uk;
- contacting the British Healthcare Trades Association (BHTA) at www.BHTA.com;
- reviewing the factsheets available at www.livingmadeeasy.org.uk;
- visiting www.dlf.org.uk; or
- contacting the Gloucestershire Adult Social Care Helpdesk. See page 37 for contact details.

If you are being assessed by a health or social care worker, they may refer you for minor adaptations, for example, access ramps or lever taps. If referred, this work will be carried out by WE Care and Repair.

Purchasing equipment privately

When purchasing equipment privately, the council advises that you do so from a retailer who is a member of the British Healthcare Trades Association (BHTA).

Members sign up to a code of practice, demonstrating high levels of customer care that go beyond their legal obligations, giving customers confidence.

Private retailers who are BHTA registered should have demonstration areas where you can try the equipment before you buy it.

- making your home suitable to meet your needs;
- major adaptations (including advice on accessing help to fund these and a step-by-step guide to the process);
- managing any work needed in your home, such as drawing up plans, getting estimates, liaising with contractors and working with occupational therapists; and
- local agents and contractors (an online directory is available).

Housing-related support in the community

GreenSquare and P3 provide housing-related, community-based support across the county. They work with anyone who is at risk of losing their home or needs practical support to develop skills around tenancy management, maintaining their home or budgeting and accessing financial support as well as improving daily living skills. Support is provided in the community through drop-in sessions, one-to-one sessions and group work. The service is open to any age group and to homeowners as well as tenants.

If you, or someone you know, is in crisis, GreenSquare and P3 can help you develop your own solutions by providing support and guidance and working with you so that you are less likely to find yourself in such a situation again.

The services help you improve the quality of your life by promoting independent living and encouraging you to build on your existing strengths. It is also for anyone who needs support to develop practical skills around access to work and volunteering.

You can get one-off, housing-related support by going to a GreenSquare or P3 drop-in. These are held across the county and are open to anyone.

They can support you with many housing issues, claiming welfare benefits, budgeting, understanding letters, form filling, liaising with your landlord and much more. Up-to-date lists of the dates and times for all the drop-ins can be found online.

Keeping warm

Warm and Well
The Warm and Well team are trained energy advisers who give free energy efficiency advice that will help you stay warmer and healthier in your home. This ranges from simple changes you can make, to helping you access grants for insulation or providing information about renewable technologies.

The team can help you reduce your energy bills, switch your energy tariff or supplier and help you find local installers and tradespeople.

The Warm Homes Fund
The Warm Homes Fund is a £5m fund to provide heating systems in more than 1,100 homes in Gloucestershire between January 2018 and March 2020. If you are living in a property that doesn’t have central heating, you are likely to be eligible to get a system installed completely free of charge as part of the Warm Homes Fund.

Eligibility for a free central heating system is assessed on several complex criteria. Many people who assume they won’t be eligible find out that they are, so it is always worth making the phone call.

Some homes don’t have central heating installed because they are too far from a gas main to have standard gas central heating fitted. With the Warm Homes Fund scheme, this needn’t be a barrier to taking advantage of this opportunity.

The team will work to identify the most suitable system for you and your home. This may mean looking at options such as renewable energy, oil or alternative heat sources. They will work hard to find the solution that best fits your circumstances.

Doorstep callers and traders

Smart doorbells are great for added peace of mind, allowing you to see, hear and speak to anyone at the door through a smartphone or tablet. They’re also perfect for letting visitors know you might be a few extra minutes to get to the door.

Web: www.safewise.com/resources/smart-doorbell-buyers-guide

If you are approached by anyone offering to do work to your home, garden, or any part of your property, always consider that responsible traders will supply a written estimate which will include details of who they are and where their business premises are located. They will also give you time to consider any offer and allow you to get other quotations for the work.

Any agreement for work made with the trader present at your home for more than £42 must include the right to cancel by law and you must be given written information about your right to cancel up to 14 days from the agreement, even if the work has started. You may be required to pay for the work done up to the point of cancellation but only if you have given written permission for the work to start within the 14-day cooling-off period.

If a trader doesn’t leave when asked, or comes back when asked not to return, then they may be committing a criminal offence.

If you have concerns about any work you have agreed to or want further advice on how to deal with doorstep callers, contact the Citizens Advice Consumer Service.

Scams

There are lots of scams around that sound convincing but are designed to trick people into giving away personal details and/or money.

Common scams involve stories about money or prizes which can be released if you pay out a small amount of money, prize wins in competitions you have never entered and sales of small cost items which have hidden conditions about repeat purchases which become very expensive.

You don’t need to feel you are being rude if you ask someone you believe to be a scammer to leave your home or if you put the telephone down on them.

Reputable businesses will not mind if you take the time to make sure they are genuine before you agree to anything with them.

Keep Safe

Keep Safe is a scheme that can help you feel safer when you go out. If you have learning difficulties, physical disabilities, autism or dementia, it can help you feel more confident about being out on your own.

Sometimes when you are out, something might go wrong. You might get lost, feel worried or lose your bus pass or money. You may be experiencing a hate crime. If this happens, all you need to do is look for the sign pictured above in the window of a shop, business or café. The sign means that it is a safe place and the staff will be able to help you.

If you join the Keep Safe scheme you will get a card that has your name and emergency contact details on it. If you need help, show the staff your card and they will use it to find out who to ring. They will make sure you are safe while you wait for help.

End of life care

End of life care should help you live as well as possible until you die and support you to die with dignity. Planning ahead should mean that, if you wish to, you can remain at home or in a care home and not have to be admitted to hospital. Wherever you are being cared for, as you approach the end of your life, you are entitled to a high quality of care.

If you are being cared for at home or in a care home your GP has overall responsibility for your care. The people providing your care should ask you about your wishes and preferences and take these into account as they work with you, your family and your GP to plan your end of life care. They can also help you put an end of life care plan together so that your preferences and choices are made clear.

Talking about the future and dying can be difficult, but it is essential that you and your family, friends and carers discuss your end of life wishes. The ‘Planning for your Future Care’ document can help you to think ahead, talk about and write down your wishes. For more information, visit the Gloucestershire Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) website.

Part Two: Help when you need it: where to start if you need care and support

As well as explaining what care and support is and how it works, this part of the guide will help you find out about short-term support to help you, or someone you care for, get back on their feet.

It will also explain what is available to you if you have long-term support needs.

What is care and support?

Care and support can be a mixture of practical, financial and emotional support for adults who need extra help to manage their lives and to remain independent. This includes older people, people with a disability or long-term illness, people with mental health needs and carers.

The care and support you might receive from Gloucestershire County Council isn’t always what you might expect and will often not be long-term support such as residential care. Gloucestershire County Council will always try first to support you by helping you find your own solutions to stay independent, or by offering you some short-term support to get you back on your feet and helping you stay as independent for as long as possible. There is more information on being independent in Part One, beginning on page 9.

For those who do need a plan for their long-term care and support, Gloucestershire County Council works with partners in the Gloucestershire Care Providers Association (GCPA) to offer the highest quality of support that it can. The role of the council in this partnership is to ensure quality standards are met and to monitor contracts, but the council also works with providers to develop a mutual understanding of what people need in Gloucestershire and how to ensure the right support is available for the right people at the right time.

Gloucestershire’s Community Wellbeing Service

Many things affect our health and wellbeing, such as where we live, how we spend our time, our financial situation and our relationships with friends and family.

Sometimes, we need some extra help, for example, when coping with a short- or long-term health situation, or when life throws other challenges our way.
The Community Wellbeing Service aims to enable and support people with non-medical needs to access local, community-based support. Non-medical needs can be concerns that are social, emotional or practical. It is available to anyone who is aged 16 or above who lives in Gloucestershire or is registered with a Gloucestershire GP.

The service has extensive knowledge about groups and activities that are locally available. It helps clients find activities in their local area, meet more people and provides information to help them make an informed choice.

It can be helpful for people:

- in times of change, for example after redundancy, health issues or retirement;
- in times of emotional hardship, such as after a bereavement;
- who are worried about debt or financial issues;
- who don’t know where to turn for support; or
- who would like to volunteer in their community.

If you think the Community Wellbeing Service could help you or someone you know, please contact the provider for your local area, listed opposite.

Reablement

Reablement is a short-term service to help you regain or increase your independence through rehabilitation and activities and to allow you to live in your own home for as long as possible.

The service aims to reduce unnecessary admission to hospital by providing a rapid response to you at home. In addition, the service can help you be discharged home from hospital earlier by providing care, support and rehabilitation in your own home.

You will be provided with short-term support and/or therapeutic intervention, for example physiotherapy, occupational therapy, nursing or care. An initial assessment is carried out by a member of staff from a health and social care team.

The service may last for up to six weeks and is usually free of charge up to the point you are assessed as no longer needing the service. When the reablement period is completed, if you have any ongoing health or social care/support needs, a plan for your future care/support needs will be discussed and you will be given details on how you can receive help to set up ongoing arrangements.

Bed-based reablement/rehabilitation

Short stay residential rehabilitation may suit people who can benefit from a programme of rehabilitation but who, in the short-term, may not be safe staying at home on their own. Short stay residential rehabilitation gives you the opportunity to recover, rebuild your confidence and to practise daily living skills, such as washing, dressing and preparing simple meals. There are several residential units across the county providing this service.

If you are assessed as having eligible needs for ongoing care and support from the council after a period of reablement or rehabilitation, the council will ask you to have a financial assessment to find out whether you are entitled to financial help with the costs of your care. See page 43 for information on paying for care and support.

If you need help with meals

Family, friends and neighbours can often provide short-term help. You can buy ready-made meals from your local supermarket which, in many cases, can also deliver them to you if you order them online. See page 8 for more information about getting online.

You can also buy hot, chilled and frozen meals from a range of Gloucestershire providers. There are activities like lunch clubs that you can attend where meals are provided. In some circumstances, the council may arrange subsidised community meals for you. This is usually a short-term arrangement while you recover from an illness or setback.

For more information about where to get meals, and the criteria for subsidised community meals, visit the Your Circle website and search for ‘community meals’ or ‘lunch clubs’.

Loan of community equipment to help make everyday tasks easier

If you are finding it difficult to manage day-to-day tasks at home, you may benefit from some equipment designed to help you.

For more information on equipment and adaptations that you can arrange yourself, go to page 30.
Integrated Community Equipment Services
You can complete a self-assessment to help find the most suitable products for you and your home. This assessment provides a range of solutions, including advice, guidance, and signposting to other services, to help you find equipment that suits your needs.

Web: www.glosequip.co.uk

Occupational therapy
The main purpose of occupational therapy is to promote health and wellbeing through occupation or the ‘doing’ of an activity.

Occupational therapists can work with you to help you live as independently and safely as possible looking at a range of ways to do this, including:

- teaching and practicing different techniques;
- providing equipment on loan; and
- referring on for minor and major adaptations.

If you, or a member of your family, are having difficulty getting around your home due to a physical disability, sensory impairment or becoming older, you can request an occupational therapy (OT) assessment to assess your needs which may result in suggesting different techniques, advice, or provision of equipment or adaptations to enable you to live independently.

If you haven’t been able to find the information you were looking for and want to talk to someone or request an assessment, please contact the Adult Social Care Helpdesk. See page 37 or use the online enquiry form.

Assistive technology to help you maintain your independence
Telecare equipment can help you:

- feel safer and more confident at home;
- ensure help is called quickly in the event of an emergency in the home or out and about;
- maintain independence with daily tasks like cooking;
- give reassurance and peace of mind to your family or carer;
- reduce the likelihood of hospital admission; and
- reduce the need for domiciliary care or going into a care home.

Using special sensors, telecare equipment can detect potential emergencies at home, like:

- falls;
- wandering;
- medication mismanagement;
- fire;
- flooding; and
- carbon monoxide.

Types of telecare sensors include fall detectors, bed and chair sensors, movement sensors, smoke and heat detectors and medication prompting devices.

Standalone telecare equipment can also be used in the home to alert an on-site carer or family member via a pager system.

Who can telecare help?
Telecare can help people with physical disabilities, memory issues, learning disabilities, mental health conditions and older people who would not be able to use a phone or link line to call for help.

To complete an assessment to find equipment that works for you and your home, including options for buying equipment privately, visit the county council’s website.

Web: www.gloucestershire.gov.uk/telecare

The assistive technology checklist on page 40 may help if you’re thinking of buying equipment.

We suggest you consider the following questions before buying any assistive technology. If you are in any doubt about what technology might help meet your needs, you can contact your council or visit www.asksara.org.uk

The right help when you need it

If you contact the council for help and support, the council will try to help you stay as independent as possible. The council can help most people who approach Adult Social Care to remain independent and living at home.

The council will support you to help yourself by providing information and advice and introducing you to other organisations, so that you can find solutions.

The council will make sure any care and support arranged for you is only in place for as long as you need it and, for those people who need long-term care, the council will ensure that the care and support is flexible if your needs change.

Everyone who appears to have needs for care and support is entitled to an assessment of their needs. Assessment is a conversation with a trained assessor about the things that matter most to you to find out what will improve your wellbeing now and in the future. Assessors will also discuss what support is available to you and what you hope to achieve. Sometimes this conversation is enough and is all that you will need from the council.

An assessment is the way that the council gets a full picture of your needs and circumstances, what might improve your wellbeing and what is important to you and your family. You can involve a relative, friend or carer in your assessment if you would like. The council will arrange an independent advocate for you if you are likely to have substantial difficulty in taking part in your assessment and have no-one appropriate to support and represent you.

Who is eligible for care and support?

The council uses a national eligibility framework set by the Government to decide whether your needs are eligible for care and support through the council. You can read the national eligibility criteria for care and support on the Your Circle website by searching ‘who is eligible for care and support?’ If your needs and circumstances change, you can ask the council for a new assessment or to review your needs.

Planning your support

If you have eligible needs, the council will help you to plan the support you need – if you would like us to. Everyone’s needs for care and support are different, and needs can be met in many ways.

Planning is all about you, your needs and what is important to you. It looks at what you can do for yourself or with the support you already have, what you want to achieve, and what help is available in the area where you live. It is your plan, but it will also involve your carer (if you have one) and anyone else that you want to involve.

Even if your needs are not eligible, the council will offer information and advice about how you can help yourself and about organisations that may be able to help or support you.

There are charges for most care and support. If there is a charge for meeting your needs, the council will work out how much it will cost. The total cost is called your ‘personal budget’. Most people have to pay something towards the full amount of their personal budget and some people will have to cover the full cost themselves.

For more information on paying for care and support, see page 43.
Independent advocacy

Independent Care Act Advocates can help you put your views across if you have 'substantial difficulty' in participating in your care needs assessment, planning or changing your support planning or if there are safeguarding concerns. This is also available for carers, see page 45.

The council will arrange an advocate to support you and speak up for you if:

- you find it hard to understand, retain and use important information;
- you have trouble communicating your views, wishes and feelings, or making decisions; and
- you do not have an 'appropriate person' who can speak up for you. An appropriate person is someone you choose, who isn’t already providing paid care and support to you and isn’t involved in any allegations of abuse or neglect towards you.

In Gloucestershire, POhWER provides independent advocacy on behalf of the council. POhWER can provide information to people who want to put their own views across themselves or those who want to support others to communicate.

POhWER provides:

- Independent Care Act Advocacy.
- Independent Mental Capacity Advocacy (IMCA) including IMCA Deprivation of Liberty Safeguards and Relevant Person’s Representative.
- Independent Mental Health Advocacy (IMHA).
- Independent Health Complaints Advocacy – if you would like support to complain about NHS funded care.

Transition to adulthood

The transition from childhood to adult life can bring many changes such as leaving school, taking up new leisure activities, starting training or college, finding employment and moving towards independent living.

For young people with special educations needs or disability (SEND), person-centred transition planning is essential to help them and their families prepare for adulthood.

Information on the Gloucestershire Multi Agency Transitions pathway is available on the county council’s website.

Preparing for adulthood and transitions in Gloucestershire is called ‘Future Me’. Further information will be available over the coming months so consider subscribing to email updates from the council for the latest news.

Glosfamilies directory

An online directory, providing support and advice for families and young people from birth to 25 years. Financial support from the council

Most people are likely to have to pay something towards the cost of their own care and some will have to pay all their costs.

To find out whether you are eligible for means-tested support from the council, both a care needs assessment and a financial assessment will be carried out. Both assessments are free of charge.

The financial assessment is carried out by a visiting officer from the council’s Financial Assessment and Benefits (FAB) team. The visiting officer will look at your capital, savings and income and will work out how much you can afford to pay towards your care and support. A benefit check will also be carried out to make sure you are getting all the benefits you are entitled to.

How much you will have to pay for your care and support depends on your financial circumstances. If you choose not to have a financial assessment, you will be responsible for paying the full cost of your care and support.

The council will always tell you in writing how much you will have to pay and the date that you will start paying from.

You can find out more about the FAB team and financial assessments on the Your Circle website by searching ‘paying for care’. For more information, see pages 57 and 60.

Independent financial advice

Paying for care can be an expensive and long-term commitment.

The council has commissioned The Care Advice Line to provide free, confidential and personalised financial advice about your options for paying for care either now or in the future. It can also help with information about current benefit rates and entitlements and can facilitate access to specialist financial or legal advice.

Carers

Looking after someone

Many people don’t recognise themselves as a carer. A carer is somebody, of any age, who provides support or who looks after a family member, partner or friend who needs help because of frailty, physical or mental illness, or disability. This would not usually include someone paid or employed to carry out that role, or someone who is a volunteer. The council and NHS recognise the valuable work carers do and commission a range of support throughout the county to help. Some of these services are explained in the following sections of this guide.

Useful local contacts

The Gloucestershire Carers Hub provides local support services; see page 45. You can also contact the hub for access to the digital resource section on the Carers UK website.

Benefits

You may be eligible for Carers Allowance if you are caring for someone for at least 35 hours per week. It is currently £66.15 per week. You do not have to be related or live with person you care for to get Carers Allowance. You can qualify for Carers Allowance if you are in or out of work, but you cannot earn more than £120 per week, after tax and expenses. You may also qualify for Carers Premium or Carers Credit depending on your eligibility.

For more information, Carers UK has a factsheet on Carers Allowance.

Your GP

If you are a carer, you can register with your GP as a carer and have this recorded on your medical records.

Once a GP knows that you are a carer, and likely to be under pressure at times, they will find it easier to offer information, advice and support. Your GP may be able to help you by:

• providing information and advice on medical... conditions of and treatments for the person being cared for;

• providing information and advice on services provided by the NHS such as continence services and patient transport to hospital appointments;

• carrying out home visits, if caring responsibilities make it difficult to get to GP appointments;

• arranging appointments for both you and the person you care for at the same time to avoid you having to visit the surgery twice; and

• encouraging and suggesting ways for you to look after your health and wellbeing on a daily basis.

Adult carers

Gloucestershire Carers Hub provides support free of charge to carers. The hub provides information and advice on a range of topics including benefits, carers’ support groups, training courses, employment and emotional support services.

Gloucestershire Carers Hub will listen to carers to understand what type of support is best to help each carer to continue caring safely whilst also looking after themselves. This could include attending a local carers’ support group, connecting carers to their community or getting a break from their caring role. These services are available to parent carers as well as adult carers (more information for parent carers is on page 46).

Where a carer appears to need further support, Gloucestershire Carers Hub will make sure that the carer is offered a carers’ assessment under the Care Act 2014.

The assessment is an opportunity to have a more general conversation with a trained assessor about the things that matter most to the carer, what effect the caring role is having on their wellbeing now and the impact it might have in the future.

Where a carer has eligible needs, the assessor and carer will work together to agree a support plan. This involves taking into account what the carer has said is important to them, what they want to achieve, things that they can do by themselves or can manage to do with the support from others and the support that is available in their local area.

An independent advocate will be arranged if, without support, the carer would have ‘substantial difficulty’ in communicating their views, wishes and feelings, understanding, retaining or using information and there is no appropriate person able and willing to help them. For more information or advice about caring, contact Gloucestershire Carers Hub.

Gloucestershire Carers Emergency Scheme (CES)

The CES is a free service that offers carers peace of mind that in an emergency, the cared for person will be supported and the people who need to know will be informed. The service is currently offered to adult carers but is working on extending this to parent carers in the coming year.

Level 1
Carers nominate two contacts (e.g. family members, friends or neighbours) who would be willing to check on the person being looked after if the carer is unable to due to an accident, emergency or illness. They will be contacted by the CES provider if an emergency occurs.

Level 2
If Level 1 won’t be enough to cover the needs of the person being cared for, Level 2 gives the added option of having a support worker within two hours of the emergency call being made. If the emergency lasts longer than 48 hours (72 hours over a bank holiday) then other arrangements will be made, working with the council.

For general enquiries about the scheme, contact the Gloucestershire Carers Hub.

Dementia

People with dementia often feel happier if they can remain independent and in their own homes as long as possible. Information about services and support for people with dementia and their carers is available through Alzheimer’s Society Gloucestershire and Managing Memory Together. Please see page 14 for more information.

If the person with dementia can no longer be cared for at home or is considering moving to a care home, you should look for a care home that offers quality personal and person-centred care. It’s important to consider homes that also provide nursing care in case the person with dementia develops more complex needs as the condition progresses. Many care homes offer specialist environments with specially trained, experienced staff and specialist facilities adapted to the needs of residents living with dementia.

A residential dementia care checklist is on page 89 of this guide, to be used with the checklist on page 87.

Care providers that specialise in care for people with dementia are shown with D in their listing.

Care in your own home

Home care

Home care is care and support that is provided in people’s own homes. This is sometimes referred to as ‘domiciliary care’.

Not all agencies provide the same services and charges vary. Most home care agencies supply care workers to support you with everyday activities, such as getting out of bed, getting dressed and bathing, and help you maintain your independence.

There are agencies that can provide 24-hour live-in care and night care, which can help you to remain living at home. These services involve a care worker staying with you at home to support you throughout the day and night.

When care and support are arranged by the council, contracts and care plans are completed using agencies accredited to work for the council. All agencies used will be registered with the Care Quality Commission, see page 67 for more information.

People arranging and/or funding their own care and support can choose their own care worker or agency. If you would like to organise your own care at home, you need to think about it carefully. Before you make any decisions, you should contact several providers and ask for a copy of their contract terms and read these with someone you trust. Get as much help as you can and ask any questions you may have before signing anything.

You may be entitled to welfare benefits which you can use to help to pay towards the cost of your care. See page 25 for further details.

You should expect the care agency and the individual care workers to respect your personal preferences, dignity and privacy and promote your wellbeing. The checklist on page 75 gives you useful questions to ask any prospective home care agencies.

You could use the list of home care providers starting on page 77 to find an agency or by searching ‘home care’ on the Your Circle website. You can then refine your search by filtering by postcode, or service type.

Glos Assistants

Have you ever considered employing a Personal Assistant (PA) to provide personalised care and support? It can be hard to know where to start, but Glos Assistants is a website that can help with the search. Glos Assistants helps to connect people of any age with care and support needs who are looking for assistants with people who are (or want to be) an assistant.

The site can help you find the support that suits you and your lifestyle. You can submit an advert describing what you need assistance with, browse profiles of available assistants, contact those you’re interested in and directly arrange the support you need with the assistant(s) you choose.

Glos Assistants can also provide help for people who work as a Personal Assistant, and those who are considering it. Being an assistant can be a varied job, offering flexible hours and rewarding work. Upon registering with the service, PAs can write a profile telling people a bit about themselves and the kind of work they’re looking for. PAs can then browse adverts, contact people to discuss roles further and start making arrangements with people they choose to work for.

Housing

There may come a point when staying at home is no longer the best option. Thinking about your housing needs in advance can give you time to understand what choices are available and help you make plans before things reach crisis point.

There is information on page 31 about housing-related support in the community. There is also information about home adaptations and equipment beginning on page 26.

There are lots of different housing options available in the county. Some examples are explained in the following sections of this guide.

Homeshare Gloucestershire

Age UK Gloucestershire’s Homeshare Project brings together older people who have spare rooms, with people who need affordable accommodation and who are happy to chat and lend a hand. Homeshare can be a fulfilling and safe option for someone who misses having other people in their home.

Shared Lives

Gloucestershire Shared Lives is an opportunity for an adult with assessed eligible health and social care needs to be supported by registered and approved carers in a family setting. This can be through support in the community, short break stays or an ongoing arrangement in the carer’s home. Shared Lives also offers enablement, supporting people to develop new skills and independence and hospital discharge support.

Shared Lives can be an alternative to traditional care settings such as a residential home, domiciliary care or hospital stays. The service is flexible and person-centred and focusses on achieving the best possible outcomes and experiences for all involved. Shared Lives is responsive and can offer short-term support in an emergency.

Shared Lives support people of all ages and disabilities, providing care to people with learning disabilities, physical health needs, mental health needs, chronic or long-term illness, needs relating to older age and any combination of the above. The Shared Lives Team closely monitors all arrangements from initial enquiry, through careful matching and into a sustainable and resilient agreement.

Sheltered housing

Sheltered housing is a practical step if you would like more security and companionship or wish to downsize from a larger home that has become difficult to manage.

In a sheltered, or retirement, housing scheme you can live independently in a flat or bungalow built especially for disabled or older people within a larger complex, sometimes around a garden or communal facility.

Sheltered housing for rent is owned and managed by councils and housing associations across the region. Private providers have also developed retirement housing for sale in the county.

For more information about sheltered housing in Gloucestershire, visit the Housing Care website.

Web: www.housingcare.org
Housing with care

Housing with care combines independent living with security of tenure, along with care services arranged according to need. Schemes may be run by housing associations, the local authority, voluntary organisations or private companies. Properties may be available for rent, mixed tenure or to purchase.

Extra care housing

Extra care housing provides self-contained, wheelchair-friendly accommodation that meets the requirements of people who need care and support. For example, the bathrooms are fitted with walk-in showers to make it easier for people to maintain their independence.

Schemes usually have their own care staff on-site.

Extra care housing provides a real alternative to residential care. Depending on the scheme, you can either rent or buy the properties. Visit the Housing Care website for more information on local schemes.

Web: www.housingcare.org

Retirement villages

Retirement villages are purpose-built developments that vary in size to create a village-style community. They usually offer communal facilities such as dining facilities and aim to help you to be independent while offering support as you grow older. Properties may be available for sale or rent and are usually available to people who are over 55 years of age. For more information, visit the Housing Care website.

Web: www.housingcare.org

Supported living

Supported living is an alternative to a care home where you can live independently or share a property with other people, with care and support provided.

This might include support with learning independent living skills like cooking, cleaning and money management, as well as help with health or care needs. Whether you choose your own property with support or supported living, it will give you independence and choice.

Visit the Your Circle website to find out more about options available to you.

You may qualify for financial help from Gloucestershire County Council if the council has confirmed that:

• following a care needs assessment, you have ongoing needs for care and support; and

• you have capital or savings (not including your home) of less than £23,250, which is established by completing a financial assessment by a visiting officer from the council’s Financial Assessment and Benefits (FAB) team, see page 43.

If you have capital or savings (not including your home) of more than £23,250, you will have to pay for the full cost of your care and support. Most people who pay for their own care and support make their own arrangements. You can ask the council to make arrangements for you if you prefer. However, you will still be responsible for all costs and there may be a fee for this service.

Paying for care and support can be an expensive and long-term commitment. Before you enter into any arrangements, the council strongly recommends that you seek independent financial advice. See page 43 for more information on independent financial advice.

You can use the online financial assessment calculator on the Your Circle website to get an estimate of how much you may need to pay for care and support arranged through Gloucestershire County Council. Web: www.yourcircle.org.uk/Information/paycareandsupport

NHS Continuing Healthcare

Some people may be able to get the costs of their care at home funded by the NHS. NHS Continuing Healthcare is fully funded care and support, provided and paid for by the NHS.

To be eligible, your needs must be primarily health-related and are likely to be severe.

More information is available on page 63, or on the NHS website.

If the council is paying some (or all) of the cost of your care and support

If the council is paying some (or all) of the cost of your care and support, you have three options:

1. You can have a direct payment if you want to make your own arrangements.

This option gives you the most control. Direct payments are paid through a pre-payment account which the council will set up for you. Each month the council pays its share of the cost into the account and you must add your assessed contribution. The account is used in a similar way to a debit card. It can’t become overdrawn as there is no credit facility.

You are responsible for how the money is spent and must use it only to pay for the care and support as agreed in your support plan. Any changes must be agreed by the council. You need to keep a record of how you have spent the money and keep all your receipts because the council must check how the money was used.

You can’t use direct payments to pay for permanent residential/nursing care in a care home, but you can use them to pay for occasional short stays if this was agreed in your support plan. Most direct payments are made to meet regular ongoing support needs.

Visit www.carechoices.co.uk for further assistance with your search for care
However, they can also be made as a single payment, for example, to buy equipment or for a short respite break.

You can use direct payments to employ your own personal assistants. If you do, the council recommends that you use a direct payment support service to help you make sure that you meet your legal requirements as an employer. Glos Assistants can help with your search for a personal assistant, see page 50 for more information.

There are conditions to having a direct payment, but most people can have one if they want one. You can find out more about direct payments from the person helping you plan your support or from the county council’s website.

When you choose this option, you pay your assessed contribution to the council every month and the council does everything else.

3. You can also combine options 1 and 2.

Care homes

Moving into a care home is a major commitment for your future – it involves changing where you live and potentially committing to paying considerable amounts of money for your ongoing accommodation and care needs.

Before you make a decision about moving to a care home, you should consider all options that would help you to stay living at home and independent for longer.

See page 50 for information about home care and page 26 to 29 for information about equipment to help you live as independently as possible at home.

You should also decide whether you need the amount of care on offer at a care home and look at alternatives such as extra care housing schemes or sheltered accommodation or a Shared Lives scheme. These options offer independence with an increased level of care and support.

You shouldn’t give up your own home without taking financial advice or having a care needs assessment to make sure this is the right option for you.

Please see page 41 for information on care needs assessments and page 60 for information about paying for residential care and support.

Listings of care homes and care homes with nursing in Gloucestershire begin on page 91.

Types of care home

All care providers in the country must be registered with the Care Quality Commission (CQC). All services are inspected by the CQC, which reports on its findings and rates each home. These inspection reports and ratings are available at the home or from the CQC’s website (www.cqc.org.uk). There are care homes for older people, homes for younger adults with physical disabilities, learning disabilities, brain injury resulting from an accident, or mental health conditions.
Care homes can care for adults with more than one condition and some homes will have expertise in providing care for adults with alcohol or drug dependency. These care homes may offer permanent residence or provide care for a temporary period.

Care homes may be privately owned or run by charities or councils. Some will be small care homes based in home-like domestic dwellings, while others will be based in large communal centres.

One of the first options you have to consider when choosing a care home is considering the level of care and support you need. There are two main types of care homes, residential and nursing.

Residential homes
Residential homes are for people who need support 24 hours a day and can no longer cope at home but don’t need nursing care. These homes provide personal care, such as help with bathing, dressing, feeding and help with moving.

Nursing homes
Nursing homes offer the same care and support as care homes providing personal care but also have nursing staff. If you are assessed as needing a home with nursing care, you will be assessed by a nurse, who will determine the level of nursing care that the NHS will pay for. This is paid directly to the home. It is important that this nursing assessment is carried out before you go into a care home with nursing. Some nursing homes specialise in certain types of disability or health conditions such as dementia.

Some care homes provide both residential and nursing care. These are known as ‘dual-registered’ homes. The advantage of these homes is that if your needs increase, you can continue to receive the right level of care without having to move to another home.

Any support from the council with paying the cost of a care home will be means-tested. For information on paying for care in a care home, see page 60. Alternatively, visit the Your Circle website and search for ‘care home’ and ‘paying for care’.

Out-of-county care
You can choose a care home outside your home county. You may want to be closer to friends and family members, for example, or you may want to relocate to another part of the country.

If you choose to move to a new local authority area and, before you move, you are eligible for support from Gloucestershire County Council to pay for your care, it may contribute to the costs of your care home placement in the other area.

The council will usually only pay care home fees that are the same as the fees that the local authority where you are moving to would pay.

If the care home that you would like to move to is more expensive than this, the council will offer you an alternative home at a fee that it will agree to pay, or you may have someone who could ‘top up’ the difference for you. For more information about top ups, see page 61.

If you are paying for your care yourself, you should contact the local authority in the area that you are moving to, so they can support you with advice. It will be important to find out about the support your new local authority could give you if, in the future, you need help to pay the care home fees.

If you paid for your own care at the time that you moved, any help that you need in the future in relation to paying for your care will need to come from the local authority in the area you moved to.

Please contact the Adult Social Care Helpdesk (see page 37) if you have care and support needs and are considering moving in or out of the county. Alternatively, visit the county council’s website.

Financial support for care in a care home

As a general guide, if the council’s financial assessment has confirmed that your savings and investments are:

- more than £23,250, you will be considered a self-funder. This means that you will have to pay the full cost of your care and support; or
- less than £23,250, you are likely to have to pay something towards the full cost and the council will pay the balance.

You can use the online financial assessment calculator on the Your Circle website to get an estimate of how much you may need to pay for care and support arranged through Gloucestershire County Council.

Web: www.yourcircle.org.uk/Information/paycareandsupport

If you own a property and you need permanent care in a care home, the value of your home is included in your financial assessment.

In some circumstances, the value of your property may be disregarded (not counted), for example:

- when your partner (or certain other relatives) continues to live in your home when you move into care; or
- during your first 12 weeks in permanent care to give you time to make decisions about what you are going to do with your property.

You may be eligible for additional financial support from the council in the form of a deferred payment agreement. See the information on deferred payment agreements on page 61.

Making arrangements with a care home

If you are not eligible for financial support through the council, please see the self-funding your care section on page 62.

If you are eligible for financial help from the council, the council will offer you at least one care home that accepts council contract rates.

You can live somewhere that costs more than the council would normally pay, if someone else can ‘top up’ the amount – see top ups on page 61.

Once you have chosen where you want to live, the council will make the arrangements with the care home for you. Then every month, the following payments will be made:

- the council pays any contribution it is making towards the cost to the care home;
- you pay your share (determined by your financial assessment); and
- if someone else is making a top up payment, they pay their pre-agreed payment.

12-week property disregard

You may be eligible for a ‘12-week property disregard’ to help pay your care home costs during your first 12 weeks in the care home if:

- you own your own home and have capital or savings (not including the value of your home) of less than £23,250; and
- no ongoing property disregards apply.

During this time, the council does not count the value of your home in your financial assessment, so you pay the amount calculated in your financial assessment and the council pays the rest.

This period gives you time to make decisions about your property, for example whether you are going to sell it or enter into a deferred payment agreement. When the 12-week period ends, council funding stops and you enter into a contract with the care home to pay for the full cost of your care unless you have made arrangements to have a deferred payment agreement.
Note: The 12-week property disregard period only applies during your first 12 weeks in permanent care. It does not apply if you have been in permanent care for longer than 12 weeks before becoming eligible for a deferred payment agreement. See below.

For more information, visit the Your Circle website, enter ‘property disregard’ in the search box then select the information tab.

Top ups

If the council is contributing towards the cost of your care and your preferred home is more expensive than the council’s agreed rates, you may still be able to move there if someone, like a family member or friend, can pay the difference (‘top up’) between what the council will pay and the actual cost.

There are exceptions where you may pay the top up yourself. These are:

- during the 12-week property disregard period (see page 60);
- under a deferred payment agreement (see below) and the council has agreed to a top up; or
- if your care home placement is part of aftercare arrangements made under section 117 of the Mental Health Act.

If the council is contributing towards the cost of your care, top ups need to be agreed with the council. The council has to be sure that the top up payer:

- understands the financial commitment they are entering into. They will have to sign an agreement with the council to pay the top up for as long as you need to live in the home, during which time fees (and the top up) may increase;
- is offered independent financial advice about what is involved; and
- understands what will happen if the top up isn’t paid. The council will continue to meet your needs but will have to consider moving you (subject to a risk and care needs assessment) to another care home that accepts its funding rates.

Deferred payment agreements

A deferred payment agreement is a secured loan from the council to pay your care costs, using your home as security. There is a limit to how much you can borrow which varies according to the value of your home and the amount of equity you have in it.

The debt to the council increases over time as each month’s care costs are added. Interest and other council charges are added to the debt too, unless you’ve agreed to pay these separately.

You can repay the debt at any time, but it must be repaid when your home is sold. If you have enough equity in the property, you can delay the sale until after your death, when the debt must be repaid from your estate.

You may be eligible for a deferred payment agreement if:

- you are receiving permanent care in a care home (or you are going to move into one soon); and

In addition, The Care Advice Line can provide free information and advice about financing your care.

The Care Advice Line

• you own your home (unless your partner or certain other relatives live there); and

• you have savings and investments of less than £23,250 (not including the value of your home).

If a deferred payment agreement is arranged, each month:

• the council pays its share of your fees to the care home until the pre-agreed limit is reached;

• you pay the care home the amount calculated in your financial assessment; and

• if a top up (see page 61) has been arranged, the top up payer pays the balance.

There are conditions to having a deferred payment agreement. Find out more information about deferred payment agreements by searching the Your Circle website below or ask your social care assessor.

Web: www.yourcircle.org.uk
(seach 'deferred payment agreement' and select the 'information' tab).

Funding your own care in a care home

If you are funding your own care, you usually make your own arrangements with a care home of your choice.

Before you make your final decisions and give up your home, the council recommends that:

• you consider whether care in a care home is the best way of meeting your current needs. With the right support, you may be able to stay in your own home for longer. There are lots of options for support at home. The Your Circle website is a good place to start exploring available options; and

• you take independent financial advice about paying for your long-term care. Care can be expensive and can quickly use up your savings. You don’t want to run out of funds too soon. See page 43 for where to get free advice about paying for care, including The Care Advice Line.

Web: www.yourcircle.org.uk

Running out of money

If you are already living in a care home and are running out of funds, tell the council well in advance of your capital and savings reducing to £23,250. You can use the online financial assessment calculator in Your Circle to help you track this, see page 60.

Visit the ‘Money Matters and Benefits’ part of Your Circle for more information.

Contact the council through the Adult Social Care Helpdesk, see page 37.

Tell the Helpdesk that you are running out of funds and ask for:

• a care needs assessment (see page 41) if you haven’t already had one; and

• a financial assessment (see page 43) to confirm your current financial circumstances.

The council can only help to pay for your care when these assessments confirm that a care home placement is the best way of meeting your needs and that you are entitled to financial support.

If you become eligible for financial support through the council but the care home you are living in charges more than the council would usually pay, you may need to consider moving. However, you may be able to remain there if someone can pay a top up. You can find more information about top ups on page 61.
What happens if you move into care?

Benefits
If you receive benefits, you must tell the Department for Work and Pensions (DWP) if you move into permanent care. They will tell you how your benefits will be affected.

Your partner’s benefits or entitlements to benefits may also change if they stay at home when you move into care.

If you need to report a change in your circumstances to the DWP, visit their website.

Web: www.gov.uk/report-benefits-change-circumstances

Housing Benefit and Council Tax
If you move into permanent care, you must report the change to your local district council. Any Housing Benefit and Council Tax reduction will stop after a four-week notice period. These benefits may also be affected by short stays longer than 13 weeks.

Contact your local district council’s Housing Benefits and Council Tax teams for more information. See page 71 for contact details.

Personal Expenses Allowance
If you are receiving care and support in a care home that is arranged by the council and the council is paying something towards the cost of your fees, you are allowed to keep a specified amount of your own income so that you have money to spend on personal items such as clothes and other items that are not part of your care.

This is known as the Personal Expenses Allowance (PEA). The PEA, which is set by the Government, is currently £24.90 a week.

NHS Continuing Healthcare
NHS Continuing Healthcare is fully funded care and support, provided and paid for by the NHS. To be eligible, your needs must be primarily health-related and are likely to be severe. If you are eligible for NHS Continuing Healthcare, you can receive the services in any setting, including your own home or in a care home. If you are eligible, the NHS will pay if you need healthcare from a community nurse or a therapist as well as personal care to help you at home.

NHS Nursing Care Contribution
If you live in a care home that provides nursing care (as a temporary or permanent resident), you may be entitled to NHS funded nursing care provided by a registered nurse. If you are entitled to NHS funded nursing care, the NHS will pay a flat rate towards the cost of nursing care to the care home.

There is more information about NHS Continuing Healthcare and NHS Nursing Care Contribution on the NHS website.

Legal information and advice
A solicitor can give you impartial advice about wills, making gifts, estate planning and Lasting Powers of Attorney. Some can also offer guidance on immediate and long-term care plans, ensuring (if applicable) the NHS and/or council has made the correct contribution to your fees.

Any proposed gift out of your estate needs careful consideration of the benefits, risks and implications, particularly on any future liability for care costs or tax liability.

Making a will
A will sets out who will benefit from your property and possessions (your estate) after your death. Although you don’t have to make one by law, it is the best way to make sure your estate is passed on to family and friends exactly as you wish. If you die without a will, your assets may be distributed according to the law rather than your wishes.

There are many good reasons to make a will:
• you can decide how your assets are shared – if...
you don’t have a will, the law says who gets what;

• if you’re an unmarried couple (whether or not it’s a same-sex relationship), you can make sure your partner is provided for; and

• you can make sure you don’t pay more Inheritance Tax than necessary.

You can draft a will yourself or use a solicitor. If you choose to write your own will, you can buy a do-it-yourself will kit and forms from some newsagents, book shops and online.

You can find out more about how to make a will on the Government’s website or on the Age UK website.

Lasting Powers of Attorney
Lasting Powers of Attorney (LPAs) allow you to appoint someone you trust to make decisions about your personal welfare, including healthcare and consent to medical treatment, and/or your property and financial affairs.

If, in the future, you do not have the mental capacity to make or communicate your decisions and you have not created a valid Lasting Power of Attorney or Enduring Power of Attorney, the Court of Protection may need to become involved and may charge for this.

The Court of Protection can appoint a deputy to make decisions on your behalf. This can be a time consuming and costly process which can be avoided by creating a Lasting Power of Attorney.

A solicitor can help you to make a Lasting Power of Attorney, or you can apply online on the Government’s website.

Alternatively, contact the Office of the Public Guardian for an application pack:

Email: customerservices@publicguardian.gov.uk
Tel: 0300 456 0300 • Fax: 0870 739 5780
Office address: PO Box 16185, Birmingham B2 2WH (Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, 9.00am to 5.00pm; and Wednesday, 10.00am to 5.00pm).

An LPA is only valid once registered with the Office of the Public Guardian. It allows for a person of your choice to make decisions on your behalf at a time when you may be unable to.

For more information about making, registering, changing or ending a Lasting Power of Attorney, visit the Government’s website or the NHS website.

The Court of Protection
The Court of Protection can issue Orders directing the management of your property and financial affairs if you are incapable of managing your own affairs and you have not set up a Lasting Power of Attorney in advance. This can be both a costly and lengthy process, but advice is available. For more information, visit the Government’s website.

Advance decisions
An advance decision to refuse treatment lets you, while you have mental capacity, choose and explain which medical treatment(s) you do not want doctors to give you, if a time comes when you lack capacity and cannot make the decision or communicate your wishes. If you want to refuse life-sustaining treatment, you must put this in writing, sign and date it, which would legally have to be followed, even if you die as a result.

An ‘advance directive’ allows you to communicate your wishes in respect of future medical treatment, but it is not legally binding.

Worried about someone or yourself – keeping safe (safeguarding adults)

Part One has information about staying safe at home. This section is about keeping adults with care and support needs who may be at risk, safe from abuse, neglect or being exploited.

Safeguarding adults means protecting an adult’s right to live in safety, free from abuse and neglect. It’s about working together to prevent and stop the risks and experience of abuse or neglect, while making sure the adult’s wellbeing is promoted. This includes having regard to their views, wishes, feelings and beliefs in deciding any action, and recognising they may have complex interpersonal relationships and may be ambivalent, unclear or unrealistic about their personal circumstances.

The council’s safeguarding duties apply to any adult who:

- has care and support needs (whether or not the council is meeting any of those needs);
- is experiencing, or is at risk of, abuse and neglect, and
- as a result of their care and support needs, is unable to protect themselves from the risk or experience of abuse or neglect.

There are ten types of abusive behaviour:

- physical: things like someone hitting, slapping, pushing or kicking you;
- sexual: things like someone touching your body or private parts without your permission or someone making you touch them in a way you do not want;
- psychological: things like someone being unkind to you, threatening you, swearing at you, calling you names or ignoring you;
- financial or material: things like someone taking your money or other things that belong to you; →
→ neglect and acts of omission: things like not being given enough food, not being given your medication or not being kept warm;

→ discriminatory: things like someone bullying you or hurting you because of your religion, a disability, your age, your sexual partner, the colour of your skin or hair, where you come from or the language you speak;

→ domestic: things like physical abuse, sexual abuse, financial abuse or psychological abuse when the abuse is by your partner or a member of your family;

→ organisational: things like your care provider or other organisations treating you badly, neglecting you or providing a bad service;

→ modern slavery: things like being forced to work by people who abuse you or are cruel to you; and → self-neglect: when someone does not take care of themselves properly.

How can the council help?

In Gloucestershire, people are at the heart of the safeguarding adults process and supporting their wellbeing is of utmost importance.

Abuse can take place anywhere, including in a person’s own home, in a care home, day centre or hospital. Unfortunately, those being abused are often the least likely to bring the situation to anyone’s attention. If you see or know of a worrying situation, please don’t ignore it.

The council will provide information and offer practical advice to the person experiencing abuse, so they can make an informed choice about any help they might need, or any action they may want to take. If they are unable to make an informed choice, care will be taken to support and protect them.

If you are concerned that an adult is at risk of experiencing abuse or neglect, you can contact the Adult Social Care Helpdesk.

| Email: socialcare.enq@gloucestershire.gov.uk |
| Tel: 01452 426868 |

You can also contact the police.

| Tel: 101 (non-emergency) or 999 (emergency). |

What will happen next?

This will depend on the wishes of the person and the seriousness of the situation. If they are in physical danger, or at risk of serious neglect, ensuring their safety will be of utmost importance. In response to your referral, a decision will be made on how to deal with your concern. If a safeguarding response is needed, a member of staff trained in safeguarding work will carry out a careful and sensitive enquiry into your concern.

Advice will be offered so that the victim and their family (if appropriate) can be involved in any decision taken to support and protect them.

Occasionally, the adult at risk may refuse the help offered, in which case the authorities have only limited legal power to act against the person’s wishes. In such cases, decisions will be based on the situation – for example the level of risk and possible harm to others. For more information, visit the Gloucestershire Adults Safeguarding Board website.

Ensuring quality of care

Inspecting and regulating care services

Health and social care services must be registered to show that they meet a set of standards. The Care Quality Commission (CQC) is the independent regulator of health and social care in England. It registers care providers and inspects and rates services. When things go wrong, the CQC can also take action to protect people who use services.

After an inspection of a care home or home care agency, the CQC publishes a report of what it found. The report looks at how well the service meets the CQC’s five key questions: Is the service safe? Effective? Caring? Responsive to people’s needs? Well-led?

Each care home and home care agency will get an overall rating of outstanding, good, requires improvement or inadequate. It will also get ratings for each key question. The ratings mean you can easily see where a service is performing well, and where it needs to improve.

It’s always a good idea to check inspection reports and ratings when choosing a care service. You can find reports and ratings on the CQC’s website (www.cqc.org.uk). Care providers must also display their latest rating at their premises and on their website.

You can also tell the CQC about your experiences of care – good or bad. It can use your information to see where it should inspect next, and what to look out for when it does. If you want to share your experience of care, visit www.cqc.org.uk/share

Having your say about health and care services

Compliments, comments, concerns or complaints about social care services

If you have a complaint about a service, the first thing you should do is tell the service. This applies whether you pay for your care or the council funds it.

By law, every care/support service and social care service must have an efficient procedure for dealing with complaints. Ask for a copy of the service’s complaints procedure so that you understand what you must do and how they will deal with your complaint.

Care funded by your local council

If you are not happy with the reply you receive regarding your complaint about a care service, you can take your complaint to Adult Social Care. You will need to follow the complaints procedure — your social worker, care manager or the department itself can explain what to do.

Or you can write to: Corporate Complaints Team, Gloucestershire County Council, Shire Hall, Westgate Street GL1 2TG

Gloucestershire County Council will work with the provider to try to resolve your complaint and put things right to prevent the same thing happening again.

If you’re not satisfied with the final reply from the care service or Gloucestershire County Council, you can complain to the Local Government and Social Care Ombudsman.

Local Government and Social Care Ombudsman

Complaints about care that you pay for yourself

You can ask the Local Government and Social Care Ombudsman to look at your complaint if you are not happy about how a service dealt with your complaint about care/support that you pay for yourself.

Compliments, comments, concerns or complaints about NHS services

The Patient Advice and Liaison Service (PALS)

Each NHS Trust has a Patient Advice and Liaison Service (PALS) or a Service Experience Team. PALS teams are a confidential service that provides information and support for patients, families and carers of their families. They can assist with giving compliments or making comments, raising concerns or complaints.

Healthwatch Gloucestershire

Healthwatch Gloucestershire is the independent consumer champion for health and social care in the county. The aim is to give people and communities a stronger voice to influence and challenge how health and social care services are commissioned and provided locally.

Healthwatch Gloucestershire gathers local people’s views and experiences of health and social care. These are passed on to those who plan and deliver services in the county and nationally, to make sure they are providing the services people really need.

If you want to do more you can join and get involved, take part in consultations or help when Healthwatch goes out to meet the public. Healthwatch needs your views and experiences to help improve and influence health and social care services in Gloucestershire.

Part Three: Choosing care and support

Finding care in your area

Looking for care in your area? Want to know the quality rating of providers you’re considering? Care Choices, publisher of this guide, has a website providing comprehensive details of care providers as well as essential information.

You can search by postcode, county or region for care homes, care homes with nursing and home care providers that meet your needs across the country.

Your search can be refined by the type of care you are looking for and the results can be sent to you by email. They can also be saved and emailed to others.

The website includes information for each care provider, including the address, phone number and the service’s latest CQC inspection report and rating (see page 67), indicating the quality of care provided.

You can also view an electronic version of this guide on the site and have it read to you by using the ‘Recite Me’ function. Visit the Care Choices website for further assistance with your search for care.
